DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE.

IN CONGRESS,

JULY 4, 1776.

THE UNANIMOUS DECLARATION

OF THE

Thirteen United States of America.

When, in the course of human events, it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to assume, among the powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the laws of nature and of nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation.

We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed, by their Creator, with certain unalienable rights, that among these are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. That to secure these rights, governments are instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed, that whenever any form of government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the right of the people to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new government, laying its foundation on such principles, and organizing its powers in such form as to them shall seem most likely to effect their safety and happiness. Prudence, indeed, will dictate, that governments long established, should not be changed for light and transient causes; and accordingly all experience hath shown, that mankind are more disposed to suffer, while evils are sufferable, than to right themselves by abolishing the forms to which they are accustomed. But when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same object, evinces a design to reduce them under absolute despotism, it is their right, it is their duty, to throw off such government, and to provide new guards for their future security. Such has been the patient sufferance of these Colonies, and such is now the necessity which constrains them to alter their former systems of government. The history of the present King of Great Britain is a history of repeated injuries and usurpations, all having in direct object the establishment of an absolute tyranny over these States. To prove this, let facts be submitted to a candid world.

He has refused his assent to laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good.

He has forbidden his Governors to pass laws of immediate and pressing importance, unless suspended in their operation till his assent should be obtained; and when so suspended, he has utterly neglected to attend to them.

He has refused to pass other laws for the accommodation of large districts of people, unless those people would relinquish the right of representation in the Legislature, a right inestimable to them, and formidable to tyrants only.

He has called together legislative bodies at places unusual, uncomfortable, and distant from the depository of their public records, for the sole purpose of fatiguing them into compliance with his measures.

He has dissolved representative houses repeatedly, for opposing with manly firmness his invasions on the rights of the people.

He has refused, for a long time, after such dissolutions, to cause others to be elected; whereby the legislative powers, incapable of annihilation, have returned to the people at large for their exercise; the State remaining, in the meantime, exposed to all the dangers of invasion from without, and convulsions within.

He has endeavored to prevent the population of these States; for that purpose obstructing the laws for naturalization of foreigners; refusing to pass others to encourage their migrations hither, and raising the conditions of new appropriations of lands.

He has obstructed the administration of justice by refusing his assent to laws for establishing judiciary powers.

He has made judges dependent on his will alone, for the tenure of their offices, and the amount and payment of their salaries.

He has erected a multitude of new offices, and sent hither swarms of officers to harrass our people, and eat out their substance.

He has kept among us, in times of peace, standing armies, without the consent of our Legislatures.

He has affected to render the military independent of and superior to the civil power.

He has combined with others to subject us to a jurisdiction foreign to our constitution, and unacknowledged by our laws; giving his assent to their acts of pretended legislation:

For quartering large bodies of armed troops among us:

For protecting them, by a mock trial, from punishment for any murders which they should commit on the inhabitants of these States:

For cutting off our trade with all parts of the world:

For imposing taxes on us without our consent:

For depriving us, in many cases, of the benefits of trial by jury:

For transporting us beyond seas to be tried for pretended offenses:

For abolishing the free system of English laws in a neighboring province, establishing therein an arbitrary government, and enlarging its boundaries, so as to render it at once an example and fit instrument for introducing the same absolute rule into these Colonies:

For taking away our charters, abolishing our most valuable laws, and altering fundamentally the forms of our governments

For suspending our own Legislatures, and declaring themselves invested with power to legislate for us in all cases whatsoever

He has abdicated government here, by declaring us out of his protection, and waging war against us.

He has plundered our seas, ravaged our coasts, burnt our towns, and destroyed the lives of our people.

He is, at this time, transporting large armies of foreign mercenaries to complete the works of death, desolation, and tyranny, already begun, with circumstances of cruelty and perfidy, scarcely paralleled in the most barbarous ages, and totally unworthy the head of a civilized nation.

He has constrained our fellow-citizens, taken captive on the high seas, to bear arms against their country, to become the executioners of their friends and brethren, or to fall themselves by their hands.

He has excited domestic insurrections amongst us, and has endeavored to bring on the inhabitants of our frontiers, the merciless Indian savages, whose known rule of warfare is an undistinguished destruction of all ages, sexes, and conditions.

In every stage of these oppressions we have petitioned for redress in the most humble terms: our repeated petitions have been answered only by repeated injury. A prince whose character is thus marked by every act which may define a tyrant, is unfit to be the ruler of a free people.

Nor have we been wanting in attentions to our British brethren. We have warned them, from time to time, of attempts by their Legislature to extend an unwarrantable jurisdiction over us. We have reminded them of the circumstances of our emigration and settlement here. We have appealed to their native justice and magnanimity, and we have conjured them by the ties of our common kindred to disavow these usurpations, which would inevitably interrupt our connections and correspondence. They too have been deaf to the voice of justice and of consanguinity. We must, therefore, acquiesce in the necessity which denounces our separation, and hold them, as we hold the rest of mankind, enemies in war, in peace friends.

We, therefore, the Representatives of the United States of America, in General Congress assembled, appealing to the Supreme Judge of the world for the rectitude of our intentions, do, in the name, and by authority of the good people of these Colonies, solemnly publish and declare, That these United Colonies are, and of right ought to be, free and independent States; that they are absolved from all allegiance to the British crown, and that all political connection between them and the State of Great Britain, is, and ought to be, totally dissolved; and that as free and independent States, they have full power to levy war, conclude peace, contract alliances, establish commerce, and to do all other acts and things which independent States may of right do. And for the support of this declaration, with a firm reliance on the protection of Divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our lives, our fortunes, and our sacred honour.

See 1 Abb. Nat. Digest, 746; Chisholm v. Georgia, 2 Dall. 471; Lane v. Oregon, 7 Wall. 71; Texas v. White, id. 700. Baltimore*, 7 Pet. 243; Gibbons v. Ogden, 9 Wheat. 1.

The sovereignty of the United States and that of a State are independent of each other within their respective spheres of action, although both exist and exercise their powers within the same territorial limits. Ableman v. Booth, 21 How. 506; United States v. Cruikshank, 92 U. S. 542.

ARTICLE I.

SECTION 2.

The actual enumeration shall be made within three years after the first meeting of the Congress of the United States, and within every subsequent term of ten years, in such manner as they shall by law direct. 2. Every bill which shall have passed the House of Representatives and the Senate, shall, before it become a law, be presented to the President of the United States ; if he approve, he shall sign it ; but if not, he shall return it, with his objections, to that house in which it shall have originated, who shall enter the objections at large on their journal, and proceed to reconsider it. If after such reconsideration, two-thirds of that house shall agree to pass the bill, it shall be sent, together with the objections, to the other house, by which it shall likewise be reconsidered ; and if approved by two-thirds of that house, it shall become a law. But in all such cases the votes of both houses shall be determined by yeas and nays, and the names of the persons voting for and against the bill, shall be entered on the journal of each house respectively. If any bill shall not be returned by the President within ten days (Sundays excepted) after it shall have been presented to him, the same shall be a law, in like manner as if he had signed it, unless the Congress by their adjournment, prevent its return, in which case it shall not be a law.

3. Every order, resolution or vote, to which the concurrence of the Senate and House of Representatives may be necessary (except on a question of adjournment), shall be presented to the President of the United States ; and before the same shall take effect, shall be approved by him, or being disapproved by him, shall be repassed by

2. Each State shall appoint, in such manner as the Legislature thereof may direct, a number of electors equal to the whole number of Senators and representatives to which the State may be entitled in the Congress ; but no Senator or Representative, or person holding an office of trust or profit under the United States, shall be appointed an elector.

3. * The electors shall meet in their respective States, and vote by ballot for two persons, of whom one at least shall not be an inhabitant of the same State with themselves. The President of the Senate shall, in the presence of the Senate and House of Representatives, open all the certificates, and the votes shall then be counted. The person having the greatest number of votes shall be the President, if such number be a majority of the whole number of electors appointed ; and if there be more than one who have such majority, and have an equal number of votes, then the House of Representatives shall immediately choose, by ballot, one of them for President; and if no person have a majority, then, from the highest on the list, the said house shall, in like manner, choose the President. But in choosing the President, the vote shall be taken by States, the representation from each State having one vote; a quorum for this purpose shall consist of a member or members from two-thirds of the States, and a majority of all the States shall be necessary to a choice. In every case, after the choice of the President, the person having the greatest number of votes of the electors shall be the Vice-President. But if there should remain two or more who have equal votes, the Senate shall choose from them, by ballot, the Vice-President.

4. The Congress may determine the time of choosing the electors, and the day on which they shall give their votes, which day shall be the same throughout the United States.

5. No person, except a natural born citizen, or a citizen of the United States at the time of the adoption of this Constitution, shall be eligible to the office of President; neither shall any person be eligible to that office who shall not have attained to the age of thirty-five years, and been fourteen years a resident within the United States.

6. In case of the removal of the President from office, or of his death, resignation, or inability to discharge the powers and duties of the said office, the same shall devolve on the Vice-President; and the Congress may, by law, provide for the case of removal, death, resignation or inability, both of the President and Vice-President, declaring what officer shall then act as President; and such officer shall act accordingly, until the disability be removed, or a President shall be elected.

7. The President shall, at stated times, receive for his services a compensation which shall neither be increased

2. He shall have power, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, to make treaties, provided two-thirds of the Senators present concur; and he shall nominate, and by and with the advice and consent of the Senate shall appoint, ambassadors, other public ministers and consuls, judges of the Supreme Court, and all other officers of the United States whose appointments are not herein otherwise provided for, and which shall be established by law. AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES.

[The following amendments were proposed at the first session of the first Congress of the United States, which was begun and held at the city of New York on the 4th of March, 1789, and were adopted by the requisite number of States. Laws of the U. S., vol. 1, page 82.]

[The following preamble and resolution preceded the original proposition of the amendments, and as they have been supposed by a high equity judge (8 Wendell Rep. 100) to have an important bearing on the construction of those amendments, they are here inserted. They will be found in the journals of the first session of the first congress.]

In Matter of Spies, 123 U. S. 131, the court say: "That the first ten articles of amendment were not intended to limit the powers of the State government, in respect to their own people, but to operate on the national government alone was decided more than a half century ago, and that decision has been steadily adhered to since."

CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES.

Begun and held at the city of New York, on Wednesday, the 4th day of March, 1789.

The conventions of a number of the States having, at the time of their adopting the Constitution, expressed a desire, in order to prevent misconstruction or abuse of its powers, that further declaratory and restrictive clauses should be added, and as extending the ground of public confidence in the government will best insure the beneficent ends of its institution:

Resolved, By the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, two-thirds of both houses concurring, that the following articles be proposed to the Legislatures of the several States, as amendments to the Constitution of the United States; all or any of which articles, when ratified by three-fourths of the said Legislatures, to be valid to all intents and purposes, as part of the said Constitution, namely:]

ARTICLE I.

Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech or of the press; or the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and to petition the government for a redress of grievances.

U. S. v. Cruikshank, 92 U. S. 542.

ARTICLE II.

A well regulated militia being necessary to the security of a free state, the right of the people to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed.

Presser v. Illinois, 116 U. S. 252.

ARTICLE III.

No soldier shall, in time of peace, be quartered in any house without the consent of the owner, nor in time of war but in a manner to be prescribed by law.

ARTICLE IV.

The right of the people to be secure in their persons, houses, paper and effects, against unreasonable searches and seizures, shall not be violated; and no warrants shall issue but upon probable cause, supported by oath or affirmation, and particularly describing the place to be searched, and the persons or things to be seized.

See Boyd v. United States, 116 U. S. 616; People ex. rel. v. Board, etc., 32 State Rep'r, 827; Matter of Milligan, 4 Wall. 2; Murray v. Hoboken, etc., 18 How. 272; Smith v. State, id. 71.

ARTICLE V.

No person shall be held to answer for a capital or otherwise infamous crime, unless on a presentment or indictment of a grand jury, except in cases arising in the land or naval forces, or in the militia, when in actual service in time of war or public danger; nor shall any person be subject for the same offense to be twice put in jeopardy of life or limb; nor shall be compelled, in any criminal case, to be a witness against himself, nor be deprived of life, liberty or property, without due process of law; nor shall private property be taken for public use without just compensation.

See generally Paschal's Annotated Const. (2d ed.) 258; Matter of Sawyer, 124 U. S. 200.

The object of the Constitutional provision that "no person shall be compelled in any criminal case to be a witness against himself" was not to prevent the passing of laws allowing the accused to testify in his own behalf if he choose to avail himself of that privilege, but to prevent the enactment of statutes by which the accused might be subjected to actual compulsion to give evidence; People v. Courtney, 1 N. Y. Cr. Rep. 555.

ARTICLE XII.

1. The electors shall meet in their respective States, and vote by ballot for President and Vice-President, one of whom at least shall not be an inhabitant of the same State with themselves. They shall name in their ballots the person voted for as President, and in distinct ballots the person voted for as Vice-President; and they shall make distinct lists of all persons voted for as President, and of all persons voted for as Vice-President, and of the number of votes for each; which lists they shall sign and certify, and transmit sealed to the seat of the government of the United States, directed to the President of the Senate. The President of the Senate shall, in the presence of the Senate and House of Representatives, open all the certificates, and the votes shall then be counted. The person having the greatest number of votes for President shall be the President, if such number be a majority of the whole number of electors appointed; and if no person have such majority, then from the persons having the highest numbers, not exceeding three, on the list of those voted for as President, the House of Representatives shall choose immediately, by ballot, the President. But in choosing the President, the votes shall be taken by States, the representation from each State having one vote; a quorum for this purpose shall consist of a member or members from two-thirds of the States, and a majority of all the States shall be necessary to a choice. And if the House of Representatives shall not choose a President, whenever the right of choice shall devolve upon them, before the fourth day of March next following, then the Vice-President shall act as President as in the case of the death or other constitutional disability of the President.

2. The person having the greatest number of votes as Vice-President shall be the Vice-President, if such number be a majority of the whole number of electors appointed, and if no person have a majority, then from the two highest numbers on the list the Senate shall choose the Vice-President. A quorum for the purpose shall consist of two-thirds of the whole number of Senators, and a majority of the whole number shall be necessary to a choice.

3. But no person constitutionally ineligible to the office of President shall be eligible to that of Vice-President of the United States.,

In Fitzgerald v. Green, 134 U. S. 377, the court say: "The sole function of the Presidential electors is to cast, certify and transmit the vote of the State for President and Vice-President of the nation. Although the electors are appointed and act under and pursuant to the Constitution of the United States, they are no more officers or agents of the United States than are the members of the State Legislatures when acting as electors of federal Senators or the people of the States when acting as electors of Representatives in Congress."

ARTICLE XIII.*

SECTION 1.

Neither slavery nor involuntary servitude, except as a punishment for crime, whereof the party shall have been duly convicted, shall exist within the United States, or any place subject to their jurisdiction.

See U. S. v. Cruikshank, 92 U. S. 542.

SECTION 2.

Congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.

ARTICLE XIV.

SECTION 1.

All persons born or naturalized in the United States, and subject to the jurisdiction thereof, are citizens of the United States and of the State wherein they reside. No State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States; nor shall any State deprive any person of life, liberty or property, without due process of law, nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws.

This amendment was proposed by Congress June 16, 1866. Ratification announced by Secretary of State, July 28, 1868. See Paschal's Annotated Const. (2d ed.) 280.

A State may pass laws regulating the privileges and immunities of its own citizens, which do not abridge their privileges and immunities as citizens of the United States. Presser v. Illinois, 116 U. S. 252.

The right to sell intoxicating liquors is not one of the "privileges and immunities," etc. Matter of Hoover, 30 Fed. Rep'r, 51.

SECTION 2.

Representatives shall be apportioned among the several States according to their respective numbers, counting the whole number of persons in each State, excluding Indians not taxed. But when the right to vote at any election for the choice of electors for President and Vice-President of the United States, Representatives in Congress, the Executive and Judicial officers of a State, or the members of the Legislature thereof, is denied to any of the male inhabitants of such State, being twenty-one years of age, and citizens of the United States, or in any way abridged, except for participation in rebellion or other crime, the basis of representation therein shall be reduced in the proportion

But Congress may, by a vote of two-thirds of each house, remove such disability.

PREAMBLE. The origin of the State government was the 20th April, 1777. Jackson v. White, 20 Johns. 313.

The rule against statutory interference with vested rights, does not apply to a Constitution. Matter of Bank, 21 N. Y. 9.

The Constitution should be so construed as best to promote the objects for which it was made, avoiding the two extremes of a liberal or a strict construction. North River Steamboat Co. v. Livingston, 3 Cow. 713.

The courts, in construing the Constitution, have nothing to do with the argument ab inconvenienti. People v. Morrell, 21 Wend. 563; Newell v. People, 7 N. Y. 9, 109.

Statutes are presumed constitutional. Roosevelt v. Godard, 52 Barb. 533.

An act must be constitutional in substance as well as form. People v. Allen, 42 N. Y. 404.

The constitutionality of statutes ought not to be passed upon unless necessary. Frees v. Ford, 6 N. Y. 176; People ex rel. Wetmore v. Supervisors of New York, 2 Keyes, 288.

Nor should a statute be pronounced unconstitutional except in a case where there is no rational doubt. Ex parte McCollum, 1 Cow. 450; Clarke v. City of Rochester, 24 Barb. 446.

A conflict between the Constitution and a statute should not be implied. Cochran v. Van Surday, 20 Wend. 365; Newell v. People, 7 N. Y. 9, 109; People v. Fisher, 24 Wend. 215.

There must be a clear conflict. Roosevelt v. Godard, 52 Barb. 523; People v. Bennett, 54 id. 480.

A statute is not unconstitutional unless in direct and necessary conflict with the Constitution. Grant v. Courter, 24 Barb. 232; Morris v. People, 3 Den 381.

Nor unless it cannot be supported by any reasonable intendment or allowable presumption. People v. Supervisors of Orange, 17 N. Y. 235.

Nor because it merely conflicts with the spirit of the Constitution. People v. N. Y. Cent. & R. Co., 24 N. Y. 485.

A law unconstitutional in part may be enforced as to its constitutional provisions. Matter of De Vancene, 31 How. Pr. 289, 313.

Material and actual injury must be shown to warrant the court in pronouncing a statute unconstitutional. People v. Canal Board, 55 N. Y. 390.

A statute cannot be held unconstitutional when it may be constitutionally executed. People v. Rochester, 50 N. Y. 525.

A statute evading the terms, and frustrating the general and clearly expressed, or necessarily implied, purposes of the Constitution, is as clearly void, as if expressly forbidden. People v. Albertson, 55 N. Y. 50.

A constitutional prohibition should not be extended by construction from motives of convenience or policy. Settle v. Van Eerea, 49 N. Y. 280.

The long continued and undisputed practical construction of a constitutional provision by the Legislature has almost the force of judicial exposition in its interpretation. People ex rel. Williams v. Dayton, 55 N. Y. 367.

ARTICLE I.

No person to be disfranchised.

SECTION 1. No member of this State shall be disfranchised, or deprived of any of the rights or privileges secured to any citizen thereof, unless by the law of the land, or the judgment of his peers.

LAW OF THE LAND.—These words do not mean a statute passed by the Legislature for the purpose of working the wrong. The meaning is, that no member of the State shall be disfranchised, or deprived of any right or privilege, unless the matter shall be adjudged against him upon trial had according to the course of the common law. It must be ascertained judicially that he has forfeited his privileges, or that some one else has a superior title to the property he possesses, before either of them can be taken from him. It cannot be done by mere legislation. Taylor v. Porter, 4 Hill, 140; White v. White, 5 Barb. 474; People v. Toynbee, 20 id. 198.

SEC. 2. The trial by jury in all cases in which it has been heretofore used, shall remain inviolate forever; but a jury trial may be waived by the parties in all civil cases in the manner to be prescribed by law.

TRIAL BY JURY.—The jury intended is a common-law jury of twelve men. Wynehamer v. People, 13 N. Y. 378. But not in eminent domain proceedings. Astor v. Mayor, 62 id. 580.

But a statute increasing the civil jurisdiction of justices' courts is not unconstitutional merely because it transfers a class of cases from courts of record, where juries are composed of twelve men, to justices' courts, where they consist of six. Dawson v. Horan, 51 Barb. 459; People, ex rel. Metropolitan Board of Health, 6 Abb. Pr. (N. S.) 105.

The right to a jury trial extends only to cases in which it had been exercised before the adoption of the original Constitution. Duffy v. People, 6 Hill, 75.

The word "heretofore," in this clause of the Constitution of 1846, means before 1846, and not simply before 1777. People v. Wynehamer, 13 N. Y. 378.

A statute providing that the act of a person seen drinking liquor on the defendant's premises shall be presumptive evidence of the illegal sale, is unconstitutional. People v. Lyon, 27 Hun, 180.

Habitual criminals act valid. People v. McCarthy, 45 How. Pr. 97.

In civil cases a jury may be waived. Embury v. Connor, 3 N. Y. 511. It is waived by taking part in an assessment of damages for land taken for public improvement. People v. Murray, 5 Hill, 468; by receiving the damages awarded; Heyward v. Mayor of N. Y., 8 Barb. 486; 7 N. Y. 486; by consenting to a reference. Lee v. Tillotson, 24 Wend. 337. See People v. Quigg, 59 N. Y. 83.

The Legislature may constitutionally change the law as to the mode of procuring and impaneling a jury; Stokes v. People, 53 N. Y. 164; for example, as to the territory from which they may be summoned; Gardiner v. People, 6 Park. 155; as to challenges to the people; Walter v. People, 32 N. Y. 147.

The free exercise and enjoyment of religious profession and worship, without discrimination or preference, shall forever be allowed in this State to all mankind; and no person shall be rendered incompetent to be a witness on account of his opinions on matters of religious belief; but the liberty of conscience hereby secured shall not be so construed as to excuse acts of licentiousness, or justify practices inconsistent with the peace or safety of this State.

This provision does not shield a witness from cross-examination as to his religious belief. Stanbro v. Hopkins, 28 Barb. 265.

A law against theatrical representations on Sunday is valid. Lindenmuller v. People, 33 Barb. 548; Neuendorff v. Duryea, 69 N. Y. 557; S. C., 25 Am. Rep. 235.

This does not include taxation. People ex rel. Griffin v. Mayor of Brooklyn, 4 N. Y. 419; Brewster v. City of Syracuse, 19 id. 216. But it includes prospective profits on a State contract. Danolds v. State, 89 N. Y. 36.

The Legislature cannot, by altering bounds of cities and towns, alter an Assembly district except at the decennial apportionment. Kinne v. Syracuse, 3 Keyes, 110.

The provision for reorganizing Senate and Assembly districts at the next session of the Legislature after the decennial census is directory merely; an act for that purpose, passed at a subsequent session, is valid. Rumsey v. Perple, 19 N. Y. 41.

This provision binds the Legislature as well as boards of supervisors. Lanning v. Carpenter, 20 N. Y. 447.

Restriction as to private and local bills.

SEC. 16. No private or local bill, which may be passed by the Legislature, shall embrace more than one subject, and that shall be expressed in the title.

An act containing both general and local provisions is not a local act, and the general provisions are not void because the title refers only to the local provisions; People v. McCann, 16 N. Y. 58; but the local provisions are void unless specified in the title. People v. Supervisors of Chautauqua, 43 N. Y. 10.

An expression of the general subject is sufficient. Neuendorff v. Duryea, 69 N. Y. 557.

It is enough if it fairly and reasonably announces the subject; the details and the means need not be set forth. Matter of Petition of Mayer, 50 N. Y. 504; People ex rel. Davies v. Com'rs, 47 id. 501. The title need not be the most exact expression possible. Matter of Mayer, 50 id. 504.

An act is local when limited to a particular locality, irrespective of population. People v. O'Brien, 38 N. Y. 193.

It is not necessary to constitute a public act that it should be equally applicable to all parts of the State; it is enough that it extends to all persons within the territory described. Burnham v. Acton, 7 Rob. 395.

A local act with a title apparently of general application, the subject of which is sufficiently set forth, is valid. Neuendorff v. Duryea, supra.

Their successors shall be chosen by the electors of the counties, for the term of six years. The County Court shall have the powers and jurisdiction they now possess, until altered by the Legislature. They shall also have original jurisdiction in all cases where the defendants reside in the county and in which the damages claimed shall not exceed one thousand dollars; and also such appellate jurisdiction as shall be provided by law, subject, however, to such provision as shall be made by law for the removal of causes into the Supreme Court. They shall also have such other original jurisdiction as shall, from time to time, be conferred upon them by the Legislature. The county Judge, with two Justices of the Peace, to be designated according to law, may hold Courts of Sessions, with such criminal jurisdiction as the Legislature shall prescribe, and he shall perform such other duties as may be required by law. His salary, and the salary of the Surrogate when elected as a separate officer, shall be established by law, payable out of the County Treasury, and shall not be diminished during his term of office. The Justices of the Peace shall be paid, for services in Courts of Sessions, a per diem allowance out of the County Treasury. The County Judge shall also be Surrogate of his county; but in counties having a population exceeding forty thousand, the Legislature may provide for the election of a separate officer to be Surrogate, whose term of office shall be the same as that of the County Judge. The County Judge of any county may preside at Courts of Sessions, or hold County Courts, in any other county, except New York and Kings, when requested by the Judge of such other county.

The salary of a county judge must be fixed by the Legislature; they cannot authorize the board of supervisors to do it. Healey v. Dudley, 5 Lans. 115.

The act increasing the jurisdiction to $3,000, is void. Lenhard v. Lynch, 62 How. Pr. 56; Rall v. Buckhout, 2 Civ. Proc. 442; contra, Sweet v. Flanagan, 61 How. Pr. 327.

Where the county judge is surrogate, an administrator's bond should run to the county judge. Farley v. McConnell, 52 N. Y. 630.

The provision as to surrogates, does not apply to the city and county of New York. People v. Carr, 86 N. Y. 512.

An act extending powers of county judges holding court in other counties, valid. Pratt v. Stevens, 94 N. Y. 387.

In case of vacancy in the office of surrogate, outside of Kings and New York, which is to be filled at the next general election, the election is for a full term, and the Legislature may provide that the person elected shall enter upon office at once. People v. Townsend, 102 N. Y. 430.

cers, not to exceed two in any county, to discharge the duties of County Judge and of Surrogate, in cases of their inability, or of a vacancy, and to exercise such other powers in special cases as may be provided by law.

Under these provisions the Legislature has power to authorize a special county judge to take a recognizance. People v. Main, 20 N. Y. 434; See People v. Townsend, 102 id. 430.

Question of election of judges to be submitted to the people.

SEC. 17. The Legislature shall provide for submitting to the electors of the State, at the general election in the year eighteen hundred and seventy-three, two questions, to be voted upon on separate ballots, as follows: First, "Shall the offices of Chief Judge and Associate Judge of the Court of Appeals, and of Justice of the Supreme Court, be hereafter filled by appointment?"* If a majority of the votes upon the question shall be in the affirmative, the said officers shall not thereafter be elective, but, as vacancies occur, they shall be filled by appointment by the Governor by and with the advice and consent of the Senate; or if the Senate be not in session, by the Governor; but in such case, he shall nominate to the Senate when next convened, and such appointment by the Governor alone shall expire at the end of that session. Second, "Shall the offices of the Judges mentioned in sections twelve and fifteen of article six of the Constitution, be hereafter filled by appointment?"* If a majority of the votes upon the question shall be in the affirmative, the said officers shall not thereafter be elective, but, as vacancies occur, they shall be filled in the manner in this section above provided.

Justice of the peace.

SEC. 18. The electors of the several towns shall, at their annual town meeting, and in such manner as the Legislature may direct, elect Justices of the Peace, whose term of office shall be four years. In case of an election to fill a vacancy occurring before the expiration of a full term, they shall hold for the residue of the unexpired term. Their number and classification may be regulated by law. Justices of the Peace, and Judges or Justices of inferior courts not of record and their clerks, may be removed, after due notice and an opportunity of being heard by such courts as may be prescribed by law, for causes to be assigned in the order of removal. Justices of the Peace and District Court Justices shall be elected in the different cities of this State, in such manner, and with such powers, and for such terms, respectively, as shall be prescribed by law; all other judicial officers in cities, whose election or appointment is not otherwise provided for in this article, shall be chosen by the electors of cities, or appointed by some local authorities thereof.

Not applicable to police justices in the city of New York; Wenzler v. People, 58 N. Y. 516; but applies to police justices in Port Jervis; People v. Dutcher, 4 Thomp. & C. 391; and to justices in Rochester; People v. Com. Counc. of Rochester, 11 Hun, 241.

Justices of the peace may not be elected at any other time than the annual town meeting. People v. Schiellien, 95 N. Y. 124.

The Legislature may abolish or abridge the tenure of the office of police justice. Coulter v. Murray, 15 Abb. (N. S.) 129; Wenzler v. People, 58 N. Y. 516.

An appointment by the Governor intermediate to the happening of the vacancy and the election, is void so far as it assumes to authorize the appointee to hold until the commencement of the political year following the election. People v. Keeler, 17 N. Y. 370.

This section applies to supplying an incumbent for a term as distinguished from a mere vacancy in office. People ex rel. v. Shea, 7 Hun, 309.

The provision of this section as to the election of justices of the peace in towns, cannot be construed as a limitation upon the power of the Legislature to create cities and villages. Matter of Gertum, 109 N. Y. 170.

Inferior local courts.

SEC. 19. Inferior local courts of civil and criminal jurisdiction may be established by the Legislature; and except as herein otherwise provided, all judicial officers shall be elected or appointed at such times, and in such manner, as the Legislature may direct.

The office of police justice is within this provision. People ex rel. Cregan v. Dutcher, 2 Hun, 156; Village of Deposit v. Vail, 5 id. 310.

An act conferring on the Marine Court jurisdiction in actions for assault and battery, without limit as to amount of recovery, is valid. Anderson v. Reilly, 66 N. Y. 189.

The only limitation upon the jurisdiction of new magistrates created under this provision, is that it be local and inferior. Brandon v. Avery, 22 N. Y. 469.

After the Legislature have prescribed the length of term, and the office has been filled, they cannot extend the term of the incumbent, in case of an elective office. People ex rel. v. Bull, 46 N. Y. 57, distinguishing People v. Batchellor, 22 id. 138.

Such courts may not be empowered to send process into adjacent towns. Geraty v. Reid, 78 N. Y. 65; Connor v. Hilton, 66 How. Pr. 144.

An act organizing a police court in a district not bounded by town, county, city or village lines, is invalid. People v. Porter, 90 N. Y. 68.

Police commissioners not a court, bound by the rules of art. 1, § 6, but an administrative tribunal. People v. Police Com'rs, 93 N. Y. 97.

Clerks of Courts.

SEC. 20. Clerks of the several counties shall be Clerks of the Supreme Court, with such powers and duties as shall be prescribed by law. The Clerk of the Court of Appeals shall keep his office at the seat of government. His compensation shall be fixed by law and paid out of the public treasury.

Certain judicial officers not to receive fees.

SEC. 21. No judicial officer, except Justices of the Peace, shall receive to his own use any fees or perquisites of office; nor shall any Judge of the Court of Appeals, Justice of the Supreme Court, or Judge of a court of record in the cities of New York, Brooklyn or Buffalo, practice as an Judgments, etc.

SEC. 22. The Legislature may authorize the judgments, decrees and decisions of any court of record of original civil jurisdiction, established in a city, to be removed for review, directly into the Court of Appeals.

This section was intended to embrace only courts of record established in cities which were in existence at the time of the adoption of this article (Dec., 1869). Hutkoff v. Demorest, 103 N. Y. 378.

Publication of Statutes.

SEC. 23. The Legislature shall provide for the speedy publication of all Statutes, and also for the appointment by the Justices of the Supreme Court designated to hold General Terms, of a reporter of the decisions of that court. All laws and judicial decisions shall be free for publication by any person.

First election of Judges.

SEC. 24. The first election of Judges of the Court of Appeals, and of the three additional Judges of the Court of Common Pleas for the city and county of New York shall take place on such day, between the first Tuesday of April and the second Tuesday in June next after the adoption of this article, as may be provided by law. The Court of Appeals, the Commissioners of Appeals, and the additional Judges of the said Court of Common Pleas, shall respectively enter upon their duties on the first Monday of July thereafter.

Local judicial officers.

SEC. 25. Surrogates, Justices of the Peace and local judicial officers provided for in section sixteen, in office when this article shall take effect, shall hold their respective offices until the expiration of their terms.

Courts of Special Sessions.

See People v. Austin, 49 HUR. 397; Devine v. People, 20 id. 98. These courts may receive exclusive jurisdiction in petit larceny. People v. Dutcher, 83 N. Y. 240.

Surrogates' Courts.

SEC. 27. For the relief of Surrogates' Courts, the Legislature may confer upon courts of record, in any county having a population exceeding four hundred thousand, the powers and jurisdiction of Surrogates, with authority to try issues of fact by jury in probate causes.

Causes to be heard by Commission of Appeals.

SEC. 28. The Court of Appeals may order any of the causes, not exceeding five hundred in number, pending in that court at the time of the adoption of this provision, to be heard and determined by the Commissioners of Appeals, and the Legislature may extend the term of service of the Commissioners of Appeals, not exceeding two years.

General Terms of the Supreme Court.

†SEC. 28. The Legislature, at the first session thereof after the adoption of this amendment, shall provide for organizing in the Supreme Court not more than five General Terms thereof; and for the election at the general election next after the adoption of this amendment, by the electors of the judicial districts mentioned in this section, respectively, of not more than two Justices of the Supreme Court in addition to the Justices of that court now in Canal Debt—Sinking Fund.

SECTION 1. After paying the expenses of collection, superintendence and ordinary repairs, there shall be appropriated and set apart in each fiscal year out of the revenues of the State canals, in each year, commencing on the first day of June, one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, the sum of one million and three hundred thousand dollars until the first day of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, and from that time the sum of one million and seven hundred thousand dollars in each fiscal year, as a sinking fund to pay the interest and redeem the principal of that part of the State debt called the canal debt, as it existed at the time first aforesaid, and including three hundred thousand dollars then to be borrowed, until the same shall be wholly paid; and the principal and income of the said sinking fund shall be sacredly applied to that purpose.

General Fund Debt—Sinking Fund.

SEC. 2. After complying with the provisions of the first section of this article, there shall be appropriated and set apart out of the surplus revenues of the State canals, in each fiscal year, commencing on the first day of June, one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, the sum of three hundred and fifty thousand dollars, until the time when a sufficient sum shall have been appropriated and set apart under the said first section, to pay the interest and extinguish the entire principal of the canal debt; and after that period then the sum of one million and five hundred thousand dollars in each fiscal year, as a sinking fund, to pay the interest and redeem the principal of that part of the State debt called the general fund debt, including the debt for loans of the State credit to railroad companies which have failed to pay the interest thereon, and also the contingent debt on State stocks loaned to incorporated companies which have hitherto paid the interest thereon, whenever and as far as any part thereof may become a charge on the Treasury or general fund, until the same shall be wholly paid; and the principal and income of the said last-mentioned sinking fund shall be sacredly applied to the purpose aforesaid, and if the payment of any part of the moneys to the said sinking fund shall at any time be deferred, by reason of the priority recognized in the first section of this article, the sum so deferred with quarterly interest thereon at the then current rate shall be paid to the last-mentioned sinking fund, as soon as it can be done consistently with the just rights of the creditors holding said canal debt.

Maintenance of canals.

* SEC. 3. The first and second sections of this article having been fully complied with, no tolls shall hereafter be imposed on persons or property transported on the canals, but all boats navigating the canals, and the owners and masters thereof, shall be subject to such laws and regulations as have been or may hereafter be enacted concerning the navigation of the canals. The Legislature shall, annually, by equitable taxes, make provision for the expenses of the superintendence and repairs of the canals. The canal debt contracted under the section hereby amended, which on the first day of October, eighteen hundred and eighty, amounted to eight million nine hundred and eighty-two thousand two hundred dollars, shall continue to be known as the “canal debt, under article seven, section three of the Constitution;” and the sinking fund applicable to the payment thereof, together with the contributions to be made thereto, shall continue to be known as the “canal debt sinking fund,” and the principal and interest of said debt shall be met as provided in the fifth section of this article. All contracts for work or materials on any canal shall be made with the person who shall offer to do or provide the same at the lowest price with adequate security for their performance. No extra compensation shall be made to any contractor; but if, from any unforeseen cause, the terms of any contract shall prove to be unjust and oppressive, the Canal Board may, upon the application of the contractor, cancel such contract.

The act of July 10, 1851, which provides for the borrowing of money upon canal revenue certificates payable out of the future surplus revenues after the completion of the canals, and for the application of the whole sum to the completion of the canals within three years, is repugnant to this section. Newell v. People, 3 N. Y. 83.

The act of 1851, imposing tolls on freight on railroads, payable to the Canal Commissioners, is constitutional; such tolls are not part of the canal revenues. People v. N. Y. C. R. R. Co., 24 N. Y. 485.

The requirement that the contracts are to be let to the lowest bidder is not to be construed literally; the Commissioners have a discretion. People, ex rel. Frost, v. Fay, 3 Lans. 398.

The act authorizing the Canal Board to take proof of the cost of work under contract, and in case it exceeds the contract-price to specify the price to be paid, and directing payment accordingly, is unconstitutional. People, ex rel. Sherrill, v. Canal Board, 4 Lans. 272.

But the Legislature may, during or after the work, increase the prices or allow extra compensation. People, ex rel. Williams, v. Dayton, 55 N. Y. 367.

Loans to incorporated companies.

SEC. 4 The claims of the State against any incorporated company to pay the interest and redeem the principal of the stock of the State loaned or advanced to such company, shall be fairly enforced, and not released or compromised; and the moneys arising from such claim shall be set apart and applied as part of the sinking fund provided in the second section of this article. But the time limited for the fulfillment of any condition of any release or compromise heretofore made or provided for may be extended by law.

Canal debt.

*SEC. 5. There shall annually be imposed and levied a tax, which shall be sufficient to pay the interest and extinguish the principal of the canal debt mentioned in the third section of this article, as the same shall become due and payable, and the proceeds of such tax shall in each fiscal year be appropriated and set apart for the sinking fund constituted for the payment of the principal and the interest of the aforesaid debt. But the Legislature may, in its discretion, impose for the fiscal year beginning on the first day of October, eighteen hundred and eighty-three, a State tax on each dollar of the valuation of the property in the State which may by law then be subject to taxation, sufficient with the accumulations of the sinking fund applicable thereto, to pay in full both the principal and interest of the canal debt before mentioned, and the proceeds of such tax shall be appropriated and set apart for the sinking fund constituted for the payment of the principal and interest of said debt. In the event of such action by the Legislature, then the Legislature shall, under the law directing the assessment and levy of such tax, make such provision for the retirement of the canal debt as it shall deem equitable and just to the creditors of the State.

Certain canals not to be leased or sold.

*SEC. 6. The Legislature shall not sell, lease or otherwise dispose of the Erie canal, the Oswego canal, the Champlain canal, the Cayuga and Seneca canal, or the Black Act providing for the use of waters of Skaneateles Lake to supply Syracuse with water, etc., valid. Matter of Comstock, 26 State Rep. 617.

No prescriptive right to use the waters of the canals can be acquired by any citizen, under this section. Burbank v. Fay, 5 Lans. 397.

This does not apply to an abandoned canal. People v. Stephens, 13 Hun, 17.

Salt springs.

SEC. 7. The Legislature shall never sell or dispose of the Salt Springs belonging to this State. The lands contiguous thereto, and which may be necessary and convenient for the use of the Salt Springs, may be sold by authority of law and under the direction of the Commissioners of the Land Office, for the purpose of investing the moneys arising therefrom in other lands alike convenient; but by such sale and purchase the aggregate quantity of these lands shall not be diminished.

This provision does not forbid the appropriation of such lands for public highways, canals or railroads. Parmalee v. Oswego & Syracuse R. R. Co., 7 Barb. 599; 6 N. Y. 74.

One to whom such lands have been set apart under the statute, and who made expenditures and permanent erections for the manufacture of salt, acquired no inheritable estate thereby, and his heirs could not maintain partition. Newcomb v. Newcomb, 12 N. Y. 603.

Appropriation bills.

SEC. 8. No moneys shall ever be paid out of the treasury of this State, or any of its funds, or any of the funds under its management, except in pursuance of an appropriation by law; nor unless such payment be made within two years next after the passage of such appropriation act; and every such law making a new appropriation, or continuing or reviving an appropriation, shall distinctly specify the sum appropriated, and the object to which it is to be applied ; and it shall not be sufficient for such law to refer to any other law to fix such sum.

See Clark v. Sheldon, 106 N. Y. 104.

State credit not to be loaned.

SEC. 9. The credit of the State shall not, in any manner, be given or loaned to, or in aid of, any individual, association or corporation.

An act authorizing insurance companies to deposit a fund with the State Insurance Department, is valid. Attorney-General v. North Am. Life Ins. Co., 82 N. Y. 172.

Power to contract debts.

SEC. 10. The State may, to meet casual deficits or failures in revenues, or for expenses not provided for, contract debts, but such debts, direct or contingent, singly or in the aggregate, shall not at any time exceed one million of dollars ; and the moneys arising from the loans creating such debts shall be applied to the purpose for which they were obtained, or to repay the debt so contracted, and to no other purpose whatever.

Debts to repel invasions.

SEC. 11. In addition to the above limited power to contract debts, the State may contract debts to repel invasion, suppress insurrection, or defend the State in war ; but the money arising from the contracting of such debts shall be applied to the purpose for which it was raised, or to repay such debts, and to no other purpose whatever.

Limitation of legislative power in the creation of debts.

SEC. 12. Except the debts specified in the tenth and eleventh sections of this article, no debts shall be hereafter contracted by or on behalf of this State, unless such debt shall be authorized by a law, for some single work or object, to be distinctly specified therein; and such law shall impose and provide for the collection of a direct annual tax to pay, and sufficient to pay, the interest on such debt as it falls due, and also to pay and discharge the principal of such debt within eighteen years from the time of the contracting thereof. No such law shall take effect until it shall, at a general election, have been submitted to the people, and have received a majority of all the votes cast for and against it, at such election. On the final passage of such bill in either house of the Legislature, the question shall be taken by ayes and noes, to be duly entered on the journals thereof, and shall be: "Shall this bill pass, and ought the same to receive the sanction of the people?"

The Legislature may at any time, after the approval of such law by the people, if no debt shall have been contracted in pursuance thereof, repeal the same; and may at any time, by law, forbid the contracting of any further debt or liability under such law; but the tax imposed by such act, in proportion to the debt and liability which may have been contracted, in pursuance of such law, shall remain in force and be irrevocable, and be annually collected, until the proceeds thereof shall have made the provision hereinbefore specified to pay and discharge the interest and principal of such debt and liability. The money arising from any loan or stock creating such debt or liability shall be applied to the work or object specified in the act authorizing such debt or liability, or for the repayment of such debt or liability, and for no other purpose whatever. No such law shall be submitted to be voted on, within three months after its passage, or at any general election, when any other law, or any bill, or any amendment to the Constitution, shall be submitted to be voted for or against.

The canal law of 1851, which authorized the raising of a loan to the State, on certificates pledging the canal revenues for payment of principal and interest, and excluding in terms any other liability on the part of the State than such as is contained in the law, with a provision that the State shall not be liable, in any event, to make up any deficiency in the revenues, and that the certificates should in no event, or contingency, be so construed as to create any debt or liability of the State, or the people thereof, within this section of the Constitution, is nevertheless repugnant to this section. Newell v. People, 7 N. Y. 9, 93.

An act making appropriations for a large number of different objects, and creating a debt for their payment, is unconstitutional; the fact that the act declares that such debt is for the "single object" of paying such "appropriation" does not save it. People ex rel. Hopkins, v. Board of Supervisors of Kings Co., 52 N. Y. 556.

That act is also unconstitutional because in providing for a certain tax "or so much thereof as may be necessary" for the purposes named, it does not distinctly state the tax. Id.

This section relates only to State finances and taxes; not to taxes of municipalities for local improvements. People, ex rel. N. Y. & H. R. R. Co. v. Havemeyer, 3 Hun. 97; People v. Supervisors of Chenango, 4 Seld. 317; Darlington v. Mayor 31 N. Y. 136.

An act authorizing the construction of certain roads in certain towns, and directing the issue of town bonds to defray the expense, without the consent of the inhabitants, is valid. People ex rel. McLean v. Flagg, 46 N. Y. 401.

Sinking funds.

*SEC. 13. The sinking funds provided for the payment of interest and the extinguishment of the principal of the debts of the State shall be separately kept and safely invested, and neither of them shall be appropriated or used in any manner other than for the specific purpose for which it shall have been provided.

Claims.

*SEC. 14. Neither the Legislature, Canal Board, Canal Appraisers, nor any person or persons acting in behalf of the State, shall audit, allow, or pay any claim which, as between citizens of the State, would be barred by lapse of time. The limitation of existing claims shall begin to run from the adoption of this section; but this provision shall not be construed to revive claims already barred by existing statutes, nor to repeal any statute fixing the time within which claims shall be presented or allowed, nor shall it extend to any claims duly presented within the time allowed by law, and prosecuted with due diligence from the time of such presentment. But if the claimant shall be under legal disability, the claim may be presented within two years after such disability is removed.

Claims which have been duly presented are not barred. Corkins v. State, 99 N. Y. 491.

ARTICLE VIII.

Creation of corporations.

SECTION 1. Corporations may be formed under general laws: but shall not be created by special act, except for municipal purposes, and in cases where, in the judgment of the Legislature, the objects of the corporation cannot be attained under general laws. All general laws and special acts passed pursuant to this section may be altered from time to time or repealed.

See People v. O'Brien, 111 N. Y. 2.

An act requiring a railroad corporation organized under the general railroad act to pay a tax upon gross receipts instead of a license fee previously exacted may be deemed an alteration and amendment of the charter and so within the power reserved to the Legislature by the above section. Mayor v. Twenty-third St. R. Co., 113 N. Y. 311.

This provision is permissive, not mandatory. Matter of Tax-Payers of Kingston, 40 How. 444. This section abolishes the old and provides a new system; hence laws passed since 1846 are exclusive of those of prior date. Rochester v. Barnes, 26 Barb. 657.

An act for the reorganizing an old corporation is not within this provision; Moshier v. Hilton, 15 Barb. 657; nor is an act remedying a technical defect in the organization; Syracuse City Bank v. Davis, 16 Barb. 188; nor an act regulating an existing corporation; Atty.-General v. No. Am. Life Ins. Co., 82 N. Y. 172.

A special act for incorporation is not unconstitutional by reason of the existence of a general law; the necessity of the act is in the legislative discretion. People v. Bowen, 21 N. Y. 517.

The Legislature may impose such restrictions and conditions as the public good requires; thus, in case of a railroad company, the manner of building bridges, speed of trains, rates of fare, etc., although a charter has been granted without reserving power to amend. People, ex rel. v. Boston, etc., R. R. Co., 70 N. Y. 569.

Debts of corporations.

SEC. 2. Dues from corporations shall be secured by such individual liability of the corporators and other means as may be prescribed by law.

Corporations defined.

SEC. 3. The term corporations as used in this article shall be construed to include all associations and joint-stock companies having any of the powers or privileges of corporations not possessed by individuals or partnerships. And all corporations shall have the right to sue and shall be subject to be sued in all courts in like cases as natural persons.

Summary proceedings to enforce individual liability, are valid. Empire City Bank, 18 N. Y. 199.

A provision in a railway charter that the Supreme Court alone shall issue injunctions against it, is invalid. Story v. N. Y. El. R. Co., 3 Abb. N. C. 478. See Van Vranken v. City of Schenectady, 31 Hun, 516.

Charters for Banks.

* SEC. 4. The Legislature shall, by general law, conform all charters of savings banks, or institutions for savings, to a uniformity of powers, rights and liabilities, and all charters hereafter granted for such corporations shall be made to conform to such general law, and to such amendments as may be made thereto. And no such corporation shall have any capital stock, nor shall the trustees thereof, or any of them, have any interest whatever, direct or indirect, in the profits of such corporation; and no director or trustee of any such bank or institution shall be interested in any loan or use of any money or property of such bank or institution for savings. The Legislature shall have no power to pass any act granting any special charter for banking purposes; but corporations or associations may be formed for such purposes under general laws.

The United States Trust Company is not within this prohibition. U. S. Trust Company of N. Y. v. Brady, 20 Barb. 119.

The People's Safe Deposit Company is legally authorized to issue certificates for deposits of money. Pardee v. Fish, 60 N. Y. 394.

Specie payments.

SEC. 5. The Legislature shall have no power to pass any law sanctioning in any manner, directly or indirectly, the suspension of specie payments, by any person, association or corporation issuing bank notes of any description.

Registry of bills or notes.

SEC. 6. The Legislature shall provide by law for the registry of all bills or notes, issued or put in circulation as money, and shall require ample security for the redemption of the same in specie.

Individual responsibility of stockholders.

SEC. 7. The stockholders in every corporation and joint-stock association for banking purposes issuing bank notes or any kind of paper credits to circulate as money, after the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty, shall be individually responsible to the amount of their respective share or shares of stock in any such corporation or association, for all its debts and liabilities of every kind, contracted after the said first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty.

This provision applies to banks chartered before the year 1846. Matter of Reciprocity Bank, 17 How. Pr. 323.

It shall be the duty of the Legislature to provide for the organization of cities and incorporated villages, and to restrict their power of taxation, assessment, borrowing money, contracting debts, and loaning their credit, so as to prevent abuses in assessments, and in contracting debt by such municipal corporations.

The right of the Legislature to delegate the power of taxation to village and municipal agencies is constantly practiced and recognized. Wallerstein v. Judge, 24 State Rep. 814.

This does not prohibit the Legislature from granting to municipal corporations new and enlarged powers in respect to the creation of debt. Benson v. Mayor of Albany, 24 Barb. 248; Bank of Rome v. Rome, 18 N. Y. 38; Grant v. Courter, 24 Barb. 232; People, ex rel. Griffin v. Mayor of Brooklyn, 4 N. Y. 419.

This section shall not, however, prevent the Legislature from making such provision for the education and support of the blind, the deaf and dumb, and juvenile delinquents, as to it may seem proper. Nor shall it apply to any fund or property now held, or which may hereafter be held, by the State for educational purposes.

No county containing a city of over one hundred thousand inhabitants, or any such city, shall be allowed to become indebted for any purpose or in any manner to an amount which, including existing indebtedness, shall exceed ten per centum of the assessed valuation of the real estate of such county or city subject to taxation, as it appeared by the assessment-rolls of said county or city on the last assessment for State or county taxes prior to the incurring of such indebtedness; and all indebtedness in excess of such limitation, except such as may now exist, shall be absolutely void, except as herein otherwise provided. No such county or such city whose present indebtedness exceeds ten per centum of the assessed valuation of its real estate subject to taxation shall be allowed to become indebted in any further amount until such indebtedness shall be reduced within such limit. This section shall not be construed to prevent the issuing of certificates of indebtedness or revenue bonds issued in anticipation of the collection of taxes for amounts actually contained, or to be contained in the taxes for the year when such certificates or revenue bonds are issued and payable out of such taxes. Nor shall this section be construed to prevent the issue of bonds to provide for the supply of water, but the term of the bonds issued to provide for the supply of water shall not exceed twenty years, and a sinking fund shall be created on the issuing of the said bonds for their redemption, by raising annually a sum which will produce an amount equal to

The amount hereafter to be raised by tax for county or city purposes, in any county containing a city of over one hundred thousand inhabitants, or any such city of this State, in addition to providing for the principal and interest of existing debt, shall not in the aggregate exceed in any one year two per centum of the assessed valuation of the real and personal estate of such county or city, to be ascertained as prescribed in this section in respect to county or city debt.

Village of Douglas*, 64 N. Y. 91.

The method of obtaining the assent of a town to subscribe and issue bonds is in the legislative discretion; the Legislature may authorize the assent to be given by an officer of the town. Even where they had previously clothed a majority of taxpayers with the authority, it may also take away previous conditions or impose new ones. Town of Duanesburgh v. Jenkins, 57 N. Y. 177.

They may be required by law to renew their security, from time to time; and in default of giving such new security, their offices shall be deemed vacant. But the county shall never be made responsible for the acts of the Sheriff. The Governor may remove any officer, in this section mentioned, within the term for which he shall have been elected; giving to such officer a copy of the charges against him, and an opportunity of being heard in his defense.

The Constitution requires nine years' citizenship to qualify for admission to the Senate, and seven years to the House of Representatives. An act, approved July 26, 1866, requires the Legislature of each State, which shall be chosen next preceding the expiration of any Senatorial term, on the second Tuesday after its first meeting, to elect a successor, each House nominating viva voce, and then convening in joint assembly to compare nominations. In case of agreement, such person shall be declared duly elected; and if they do not agree, then balloting to continue from day to day, at 12 M. during the session, until choice has been made. Vacancies are to be filled in like manner. The members of each House receive a salary of $5,000 per annum, and mileage at the rate of twenty cents per mile. For each day's absence, except when caused by sickness, eight dollars per diem may be deducted from the salary. The President pro tem. of the Senate receives the same compensation as the Vice-President. The Speaker of the House of Representatives receives $8,000 a year.

THE ARMS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK.
AS RE-ESTABLISHED BY
CHAPTER 190 OF THE LAWS OF 1882.

Arms of the State of New York.

The Senate adopted a resolution, May 21, 1880, appointing a commission composed of the Governor, Secretary of State and Comptroller, to ascertain, by examination and comparison of the earliest specimens in existence, what, in their judgment, was an exact description of the original Arms of the State, and to report the same to the Legislature, together with the measures by them deemed necessary to perpetuate their use without alteration on the seals in the public offices of the State. May 20, 1882, the Arms as approved by the commission were adopted by the following act of the Legislature, viz. :

CHAPTER 190.

AN ACT to re-establish the original arms of the state of New York, and to provide for the use thereof on the public seals.

PASSED May 20, 1882; three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows :

SECTION 1. The device of arms of this state as adopted March sixteenth seventeen hundred and seventy-eight, is hereby declared to be correctly described as follows :

CHARGE. Azure, in a landscape, the sun in fess, rising in splendor, or, behind a range of three mountains, the middle one the highest, in base a ship and sloop under sail, passing and about to meet on a river bordered below by a grassy shore fringed with shrubs, all proper.

CREST. On a wreath, azure and or, an American eagle proper, rising to the dexter, from a two-thirds of a globe terrestrial showing the North Atlantic ocean with outlines of its shores.

SUPPORTERS. On a quasi compartment formed by the extension of the scroll.

DEXTER. The figure of Liberty proper, her hair disheveled and decorated with pearls, vested azure, sandaled gules, about the waist a cincture or, fringed gules, a mantle of the last depending from the shoulders behind to the feet, in the dexter hand a staff ensigned with Phrygian cap or, the sinister arm embowed, the hand supporting the shield at the dexter chief point, a royal crown by her sinister foot dejected.

SINISTER. The figure of Justice proper, her hair disheveled and decorated with pearls, vested or, sandaled, cinctured and mantled as Liberty, bound about the eyes with a fillet proper, in the dexter hand a straight sword hilted or, erect, resting on the sinister chief point of the shield, the sinister arm embowed, holding before her her scales proper.

MOTTO. On a scroll below the shield, argent, in sable, EXCELSIOR.

§ 2. The secretary of state shall cause to be engraved upon metal two and one-half inches in diameter the device of arms of this state accurately conformed to the description of the same given in section first, and the arms so engraved shall be surrounded with the legend, "The great seal of the state of New York," and it alone shall be used as the great seal of the state. He shall also cause to be engraved on metal the privy seal for the office of the governor, and seals for the court of appeals, the secretary of state, the comptroller, the treasurer, the state engineer and surveyor, and the adjutant-general, which shall be two inches and a quarter in diameter and shall contain the same device of arms; and each of said seals shall have an inscription on its face surrounding the arms, containing severally the name and title of each office. He shall also provide in the same manner for all other offices at the capital, which are required to have in use official seals.

§ 3. The seals of all state officers other than those named in the preceding section, and which are required or authorized by statute to use a seal, shall conform to the same device described in the first section, shall be one inch and three-quarters in diameter, and shall be surrounded with the appropriate name of the office.

§ 4. From and after the first day of January eighteen hundred and eighty-three, the seals provided as aforesaid by the secretary of state shall be used for all the requisite purposes of these offices. The seals of the several offices which can no longer be used shall be delivered to the secretary of state, shall be by him defaced with a suitable mark and deposited with the ancient seals in the state library.

§ 5. The device of arms of the state corresponding to the blazon hereinbefore given, shall be painted in colors upon wood or canvas, and hung upon the walls of the executive chamber, the court of appeals, the office of the secretary of state, and of the senate and assembly chambers.

§ 6. No pictorial devices other than the arms of the state shall be used in the public offices at the capitol for letter headings and envelopes used for official business. Persons printing and circulating public documents under the authority of the state, when they use a vignette, shall place upon the title pages of the documents the standard device of the state arms without alterations or additions.

§ 7. During the hours when the legislature is in session the state flag, bearing the arms of the state, shall be displayed from the capitol together with the flag of the United States.

§ 8 All acts or parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

Governors of New York.

The executive power of the State is vested by the Constitution in the Governor. He is commander-in-chief of the military and naval forces of the State, a trustee of public buildings, a Regent of the University, a trustee of the Soldiers' Home, and a trustee of Union College, Cornell University, Syracuse University and of the Idiot Asylum. He is authorized and empowered to see that all laws are faithfully executed. Among other powers, he may convene the Legislature, or Senate only, in extraordinary sessions, may grant reprieves, commutations and pardons after convictions for all offenses except treason and cases of impeachment, upon such conditions and restrictions as he may think proper, and may appoint, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, certain officers connected with the government of the State not elective by the people, and fill vacancies occurring in office during the recess of the Senate. He also has power to remove many officers in the method prescribed by law.

He has the power to veto all bills passed by the Senate and Assembly. During the session of the Legislature, he must return any such bill to the house in which it originated with his objections, within ten days — Sundays excepted — after it is presented to him; if not returned within that time, it shall be a law in like manner as if he had signed it, unless the Legislature, by its adjournment prevent its return, in which case it does not become a law without his signature. After the final adjournment of the Legislature, no bill becomes a law unless approved by the Governor within thirty days. The Governor has also power to disapprove items in any bill appropriating money in the manner prescribed by the Constitution.

The Governor holds his office for three years and receives a salary of ten thousand dollars and use of executive mansion.

The Constitution of 1846 abolished the office of Surveyor-General, and instituted in its place that of State Engineer and Surveyor, possessing all the powers of the former except that of Commissioner of the Canal Fund. In addition he has general duties relative to the public lands and canals not required of the former officer. He is a Commissioner of the Land Office and a member of the Canal Board, the Board of State Canvassers, and the State Board of Equalization of Assessments. He is elected biennially (each odd year); receives a salary of $5,000. The Engineering Department is under the supervision of the State Engineer and Surveyor. Three Division Engineers and three Resident Engineers and all subordinate engineers are appointed by him. By chapter 414, Laws of 1886, the State Survey is to be transferred to the office of the State Engineer. By the provision of the State Constitution, article 5, he is required to be a practical engineer.

He appoints not more than three assistant superintendents, whose duties are prescribed by him, subject to modification by the Legislature, and who each receives for services an annual compensation of $3,000. They hold their office for three years, subject to suspension or removal by the Superintendent of Public Works, whenever, in his judgment, the public interest shall so require. Any vacancy in the office of any such assistant superintendent is filled for the remainder of the term for which he was appointed, by the Superintendent of Public Works; but in case of the suspension or removal of any such assistant superintendent by him, he shall at once report to the Governor, in writing, the cause of such removal. All other persons employed in the care and management of the canals, except those in the department of the State Engineer and Surveyor, are appointed by the Superintendent of Public Works, and are subject to suspension or removal by him. The Superintendent of Public Works is a member of the Canal Board. The Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, has power to fill a vacancy in the office of Superintendent of Public Works; if the Senate be not in session, he may grant a commission which shall expire at the end of the next succeeding session of the Senate.

Commissioners of Claims.

The Board of Claims of the State of New York was constituted by chapter 205 of the Laws of 1883, and consists of three Commissioners. By that act the office of Canal Appraiser and the State Board of Audit were abolished from and after May 31, 1883. The Commissioners of the Board of Claims went into office on June 1, 1883, and the Board organized and appointed its clerk, stenographer and messenger, and adopted its rules of procedure on the first Monday of June, 1883. All claims pending and undetermined before the late Board of Canal Appraisers and the late State Board of Audit on May 31, 1883, were transferred to the Board of Claims, to which Board jurisdiction was given to hear, audit and determine all said claims. Chapter 205 of the Laws of 1883 was amended by chapter 60 of the Laws of 1884. Said Board has all the jurisdiction and power to hear and determine claims against the State formerly possessed by the Canal Appraisers and the State Board of Audit. It has also jurisdiction to hear, audit and determine all private claims against the State, which shall have accrued within two years prior to the time when such claim is filed, except claims barred by any existing statute, and to allow thereon such sums as should be paid by the State; and all claims on the part of the State against any person making a claim against the State before said Board. It has also jurisdiction to hear and determine claims that the Legislature, by various enactments, have authorized it to hear.

The Commissioners are appointed by the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate. The Commissioners first appointed hold for two, four and six years, from January 1, 1884, respectively. The full term is six years. They each receive an annual salary of $5,000 and $500 to each per annum in lieu of expenses.

Four stated sessions of said Board are held at the Capitol on the second Tuesday of January, April, September and November, in each year, with such adjourned sessions there or in different sections of the State as the Board may determine. The office of the Clerk of the Board is located in the Capitol.

5. To postpone to a certain day.
6. To commit to a standing committee.
7. To commit to a select committee.
8. To the Committee of the Whole.
9. To amend.

The motion to adjourn or for a call of the Senate or to lay on the table shall be decided without debate, and shall always be in order except as provided in Rules 41 and 59.

RULE 35. All motions shall be reduced to writing, if desired by the President or any member, delivered in at the table, and read by the President or Clerk, before the same shall be debated; but any such notice may be withdrawn at any time before decision or amendment is made.

RULE. 36. If the question in debate contains several points, any member may have the same divided, provided the division called for embodies a distinct principle or statement of fact.

RULE 37. A motion to postpone, commit or refer, until it is decided, shall preclude all debate of the main question.

RULE 38. When a blank is to be filled, and different sums or time shall be proposed, the question shall be first taken on the highest sum and the longest time.

RULE 39. When a question has once been put and decided, it shall be in order for any Senator to move for the reconsideration thereof; but no motion for the reconsideration

- of any vote shall be in order after the bill, resolution, message, report, amendment or motion, upon which the vote was taken, shall have gone out of the possession of the Senate, and no bill or resolution shall, before the first day of April, be sent from the Senate on the day of its passage; nor shall any motion for reconsideration be in order, unless made on the same day on which the vote was taken; or within the next three days of the actual session of the Senate thereafter. Nor shall any question be reconsidered more than once, but when a bill or resolution shall have been recalled from the Governor or from the Assembly, a motion for reconsideration may be made at any time thereafter while the same is in the possession of the Senate, and all resolutions recalling a bill or resolution from the Governor or Assembly shall be regarded as privileged. No vote shall be reconsidered upon either of the following motions:

To adjourn.

To lay on the table.

RULE 40. All concurrent resolutions shall lie on the table at least one day, except as otherwise directed by Rule 39, and except concurrent resolutions referring to adjournment.

OF CLOSING DEBATE.

RULE 41. When any bill, resolution or motion shall have been under consideration for six hours, it shall be in order for any Senator to move that the debate shall be closed, and the president shall recognize the Senator who wishes to make such motion. Such motion shall not be amendable or debatable and shall be immediately put, and if it shall receive the affirmative votes of a majority of the Senators present the pending measure shall take precedence over all other business. The vote shall thereupon be taken upon such bill, motion or resolution with such amendments as may be pending at the time of such motion, according to the rules of the Senate, but without further debate, except that any Senator who may desire so to do, shall be permitted to speak thereon not more than once and not exceeding one hour. Any Senator who does not wish to use the time thus allotted to him may yield the whole or any part thereof to any other Senator or Senators. After such motion to close debate has been made by any Senator no other motion shall be in order until the same has been voted upon by the Senate. After the Senate shall have decided to close debate as hereinbefore provided, no motion shall be in order but a motion to adjourn. When such motion to adjourn shall have been lost it shall not be in order to renew the same until two Senators shall have spoken upon the pending measure or until a vote shall have been taken upon a pending amendment. Should said motion to adjourn be carried the measure under consideration shall be the pending question when the Senate shall again convene and shall be taken up at the point where it was at the time of such adjournment.

OF A QUORUM.

RULE 42. If, at any time during the daily sessions of the Senate, a question shall be raised by any Senator as to the presence of a quorum, the presiding officer shall forthwith direct the clerk to call the roll and shall announce the result and such proceedings shall be without debate; but no Senator while speaking shall be interrupted by any other Senator raising the question of the lack of a quorum, and the question as to the presence of a quorum shall not be raised oftener than once in every hour unless the lack of a quorum shall be disclosed upon a roll-call of the ayes and noes. Whenever upon a roll-call any senator who is upon the floor of the Senate chamber refuses to make response when his name shall be called it shall be the duty of the presiding officer, either upon his own motion or upon the suggestion of any Senator, to request the Senator so remaining silent to respond to his name, and if such Senator fails so to do the fact of such request or refusal shall be entered in the journal and such Senator shall be counted as present for the purpose of constituting a quorum.

QUESTIONS OF ORDER.

RULE 43. All questions relating to the priority of business shall be decided without debate.

RULE 44. When the reading of a paper is called for, except petitions, and the same is objected to by any member, it shall be determined by a vote of the Senate, without debate.

RULE 45. When a Senator shall be called to order, he shall take his seat until the President shall have determined whether he was in order or not; and if decided to be out of order, he shall not proceed without the permission of the Senate; and every question of order shall be decided by the President, subject to an appeal to the Senate by any member; and no second appeal shall be determined until the original appeal shall be decided; and if a Senator be called to order for words spoken, the words excepted to shall be immediately taken down in writing, that the President or Senate may be better enabled to judge of the matter.

RULE 46. Upon a division in the Senate, the names of those who voted for or against a question shall be entered alphabetically on the minutes, if any Senator requires it, except upon motion, to excuse a Senator from voting, which shall be decided by count; and each senator called upon, unless, for special reasons, he be excused by the Senate, shall declare, openly and without debate, his assent or dissent to the question.

EXECUTIVE SESSION.

RULE 47. On motion made and seconded to close the doors of the Senate, on the discussion of any business which may, in the opinion of any Senator, require secrecy, and during the consideration of all business in executive session, the President shall direct all persons, except the Senators and Clerk of the Senate, his messenger and the Executive clerk thereof, to withdraw; and during the discussion of said motion the doors shall remain shut; and every Senator and officer of the Senate shall keep secret all such matters, proceedings and things which shall transpire while the doors remain closed.

RULE 48. The proceedings of the Senate upon executive business shall be kept in a journal separate from its proceedings upon legislative business.

RULE 49. The Senate shall go into consideration of executive business on the first and third Wednesdays of every month that it is in session, at twelve o'clock noon, and at such other times as may be ordered by a vote of the majority of the Senators present. All nominations sent by the Governor for the appointment of any officer (except notaries public) shall be referred, if the Senate so orders, to any standing committee of the Senate. Nominations of persons for the office of notary public shall be referred to the Senator from the district in which the nominee resides, except that when the nominee resides in the city and county of New York, the reference shall be to the Senators from that city and county; and when the nominee resides in the county of Kings, the reference shall be to the Senators from that county.

RULE 51. None but the President, Senators and clerks shall be allowed to take books belonging to the Senate Chamber; and on taking books each of the persons above-mentioned shall furnish to the librarian a list of those taken, and his name, and shall be responsible for them; and it shall be the duty of the librarian to have a book in which he shall enter the delivery of the books so taken and their return; and it shall be his duty to see that the books in the library are kept in order and in their place at the opening of each morning session.

RULE 52. It shall be the duty of the superintendent of documents and his assistant to have the documents and bills promptly placed upon the files of the President and Senators in the order of their numbers, and it shall be the duty of the assistant sergeat-at-arms to see that the mails are punctually delivered.

RULE 53. The Senate library, post-office and document room shall be open every morning during the session at 8.30 o'clock, and remain open until 5 o'clock P. M., and shall also be open at all times when the Senate may be in session.

RULE 54. No rule of the Senate shall be altered, suspended or rescinded without a vote of a majority of all the Senators elected; and no motion to suspend, alter or rescind any such rule, or any joint rule of the two houses, shall be in order without the unanimous consent of the Senate, unless one day's previous notice thereof shall be given; and no motion to suspend shall embrace more than one rule, or relate to any other subject than the one specified in said motion.

RULE 55. Whenever a claim is presented to the Senate and referred to a committee, and the committee reports that the claims ought not to be allowed, and the report be adopted by the Senate, it shall not be in order to move to take the papers from the files for the purpose of referring them at a subsequent session, unless the claimants shall present a memorial for that purpose, stating in what manner the committee have erred in the report, or what new evidence had been discovered since the report, and setting forth the new evidence in the memorial.

RULE 56. In case a less number than a quorum of the Senate shall convene, they are hereby authorized to send the sergeant-at-arms, or any other person, for any or all absent members as the majority of such members shall agree. It shall be the duty of the sergeant-at-arms, except when absent in the discharge of his duties, to be in constant attendance upon the sessions of the Senate, and under the direction of the presiding officer, to aid in enforcing order on the floor of the Senate, in the lobbies and in the rooms adjoining to the Senate, and also to see that no person remains on the floor of the Senate, unless entitled to the privileges of the same under Rules 10 and 48.

RULE 57. In all cases of the absence of members during the sessions of the Senate, the members present may take such measures as they shall deem necessary to secure their presence, and in addition to suspending them from the service of the house for a given period, may inflict such censure or pecuniary penalty as they may deem just on those who, on being called for that purpose, shall render not sufficient excuse for their absence.

RULE 58. Concurrent resolutions and all resolutions calling for the expenditure of moneys must be decided by a majority vote of all the members elected to the Senate upon a call of the roll.

RULE 59. For the purpose of securing the attendance of members a call of the Senate may be ordered at any time, but such call shall not be in order after the voting on any question has begun nor after the third reading of a bill has been completed.

Every bill, immediately upon its introduction, shall be printed and placed on the files of the members. It shall retain its original printed number, when reprinted, together with its new number thereafter, during all stages of its progress.

No bill affecting the rights of individuals, or of private or municipal corporations, otherwise than as it affects generally the people of the whole State, shall be reported by a committee, unless it is made to appear to the satisfaction of the committee that notice has been given, by public advertisement or otherwise, to all parties interested, without expense to the State. All bills shall be so referred prior to their third reading.

CHAPTER VII.

THE SPECIAL ORDERS.

RULE 17. Any matter may be made a special order for any particular day, by assent of two-thirds of the members present. When so made, a similar vote shall be requisite to rescind or postpone.

During the last ten days of the session a notice may be given requesting that any matter be made a special order, or that the rules be suspended for the purpose of reading a bill out of its order, which shall be referred, without debate, to the Committee on Rules. The member making the motion or giving the notice shall submit in writing the reasons for making such special order or suspension, and attach thereto a copy of the bill.

The committee may report at any time, and such report shall stand as the determination of the house, unless otherwise ordered by a vote of two-thirds of the members present, and the committee shall not be discharged from the further consideration of any matter pending, unless by a like vote.

CHAPTER VIII.

THE COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE.

RULE 18. Any matter may be committed to the Committee of the Whole, by the assent of two-thirds of the members present.

RULE 20. A motion to rise and report progress shall be in order at any stage, and shall be decided without debate.

RULE 21. Bills and other matters shall be considered in Committee of the Whole in the following manner, viz.. All amendments, in their proper connection, shall be reported to the house by the chairman. Bills reported by the Committee of the Whole shall be subject to debate before the question to agree with the committee in their report is put, but such amendments only shall be in order as were offered in Committee of the Whole, and where a bill shall be reported by the Committee of the Whole, with the enacting clause stricken out, and the report shall be agreed to by the house, or a report favorable to the passage of a bill shall be disagreed to by a vote of the house, such bill shall be considered as rejected.

RULE 22. If, at any time, when in Committee of the Whole House, it be ascertained that there is no quorum, the chairman shall immediately report the fact to the Speaker.

CHAPTER IX.

RULE 23. No bill shall be introduced in the house, except in one of the following modes, viz.:

1. As specified in Rule 4.
2. By report of a committee.
- 3 By order of the house.
4. By message from the Senate.

RULE 24. No private bill shall be introduced, but upon a memorial or petition presented to the house, and signed and verified by the party or parties praying for the passage of the same, except by order of the house.

RULE 25. Every message from the Senate, communicating any bill for the concurrence of the house, shall, with the accompanying documents, if any, be referred to a standing or select committee to consider and report thereon, and every such message communicating an amendment, shall be referred to the committee which reported the measure proposed to be amended, with power to report at any time.

RULE 26. All bills, whether introduced in the house or communicated by message from the Senate, shall, after their first reading, be referred to a standing or select committee, to consider and report thereon. Such committee may report any bill, either with or without amendments, or they may report against the same. All bills reported favorably or for consideration, if reported with amendments, shall be immediately printed, and the amendments proposed by the committee shall be printed in Roman, except in cases where the committee recommend striking out certain words, in which case they shall be printed "Stricken through."

All bills favorably reported shall, if the report be agreed to, be placed on the order of second reading; but where a bill has been reported adversely, and such report shall be agreed to by the House, it shall be considered as rejected. No committee shall be discharged from the consideration of a bill thus referred until the committee has had a meeting subsequent to its reference, and has neglected to consider the bill; nor shall an adverse report be received unless the introducer of the bill has first had an opportunity to be heard.

RULE 27. Bills on the order of second reading shall be subject to debate before the motion to order them to a third reading is entertained; such bills shall be considered section by section. The main question, if ordered, shall apply only to the section at the time under consideration. After the bill has been thus read through, one-half hour shall be allowed for debate, but no person shall speak more than fifteen minutes, except by consent of the House.

RULE 28. Every bill shall receive three separate readings, and on three different days, previous to its passage, except by unanimous consent.

RULE 29. All bills materially amended on second reading shall be reprinted before they are read a third time, and no bill shall be put upon its third reading until it shall have been reported by the Committee on Printed and Engrossed Bills as correctly printed or properly engrossed.

RULE 30. On the third reading of the bill no amendment shall be in order, except to fill blanks, without unanimous consent, unless, on commitment, such amendments shall have been reported by a committee, in which case, after amendments so reported shall have been disposed of, the question shall be the same as was pending before the reference.

RULE 31. A register shall be kept by the Clerk of all bills introduced in the House, or transmitted for concurrence from the Senate, in which shall be recorded, under appropriate heads, the progress of such bills from the date of their introduction to the time of their transmission; if Assembly bills to the Governor, or, if Senate bills, their return to the Senate.

CHAPTER X.

MOTIONS AND THEIR PRECEDENCE.

RULE 32 When a question shall be under consideration, no motion shall be received, except as herein specified, which motions shall have precedence in the order stated, viz.:

- 1 For an adjournment of the House.

3. For the previous question.
4. To lay on the table.
5. To postpone indefinitely.
6. To postpone to a certain day.
7. To go into Committee of the Whole on the pending subject immediately.

RULE 33. A motion to reconsider any vote must be made on the same day on which the vote proposed to be reconsidered was taken, or on the legislative day next succeeding, and, except in the case of a vote on the final passage of a bill, by a member who voted in the majority. Such motion may be made under any order of business, but shall be considered only under the order of business in which the vote proposed to be reconsidered occurred. The motion to reconsider the vote on the final passage of any bill shall be privileged to any member, but no motion for the reconsideration of any vote shall be in order after a bill, resolution, message, report, amendment or motion upon which the vote was taken shall have gone out of the possession of the House, unless subsequently recalled by a vote of the House, and in possession of the Clerk.

RULE 34. When a motion for reconsideration is decided, that decision shall not be reconsidered, and no question shall be twice reconsidered; nor shall any vote be reconsidered upon either of the following motions:

To adjourn.

To lay on the table.

To take from the table; or

For the previous question.

A motion to recall a bill from the Governor for correction may be made by or on behalf of the member who introduced the bill, under any order of business, and the votes for consideration, amendment and final passage of such bill may be taken immediately upon its return.

CHAPTER XI.

RESOLUTIONS.

RULE 35. The following classes of resolutions shall lie over one day for consideration, after which they may be called up, as, of course, under their appropriate order of business.

1. All concurrent resolutions, except resolutions in reference to adjournments and those recalling bills from the Governor or Senate, which shall be regarded as privileged.

2. Resolutions containing calls for information on the Executive Department.

3. Resolutions giving rise to debate, except such as relate to the disposition of matters immediately before the House, such as relates to the business of the day on which they were offered, and such as relates to adjournment or taking recess for a day.

RULE 36. All resolutions for printing extra copies of documents shall be referred to the Committee on Printing, who shall report on each resolution within seven days after such reference.

RULE 37. All other resolutions calling for or leading to expenditures for the uses of the Legislature shall be referred to, and reported on, by the Committee on Ways and Means, unless the House shall designate some other committee.

CHAPTER XII.

THE PREVIOUS QUESTION.

RULE 38. The "previous question" shall be put as follows: "Shall the main question now be put?" and, until it is decided, shall preclude all amendments or debate. When, on taking the previous question, the House shall decide that the main question shall not now be put, the main question shall be considered as still remaining under debate. The "main question" shall be on the passage of the bill, resolution or other matter under consideration; but when amendments are pending, the question shall first be taken upon such amendments in their order, and when amendments have been adopted in Committee of the Whole, and not acted on in the House, the question shall be taken upon such amendments in like order, and, if the previous question has been ordered, without further debate or amendment.

CHAPTER XIII.

THE ASSEMBLY CHAMBER AND THE PRIVILEGES OF ADMISSION TO THE FLOOR THEREOF.

RULE 39. The use of the Assembly Chamber may be granted to the State Agricultural Society, the State Medical Society and such other societies as are required by law to report to the Legislature. No application for the use of the Chamber for any other purpose shall be entertained without the unanimous consent of the House.

No other person shall be admitted to the floor during the session, except upon the permission of the Speaker or by vote of the House; and persons so admitted shall be allowed to occupy places only in the seats in the rear of the Assembly Chamber. All permits granted by the Speaker may be revoked by him at pleasure, or upon the order of the House.

CHAPTER XIV.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS.

RULE 41. In all cases of the absence of members during the sessions of the House, the members present may take such measures as they shall deem necessary to secure their presence, and in addition to suspending them from the service of the House for a given period, may inflict such censure or pecuniary penalty as they may deem just on those who, on being called on for that purpose, shall render not sufficient excuse for their absence.

RULE 42. For the purpose of securing the attendance of members, a call of the House may be made, but such call shall not be in order, after the main question has been ordered, nor after the voting on any question has commenced, nor after the third reading of a bill has been completed.

RULE 43. When less than a quorum vote on any subject under the consideration of the House, it shall be in order, on motion, to close the bar of the House, whereupon the roll of members shall be called by the Clerk; and if it is ascertained that a quorum is present, either by answering to their names or by their presence in the House, the yeas and nays shall again be ordered by the Speaker, and if any member present refuses to vote, such refusal shall be deemed a contempt, and unless purged, the House may order the Sergeant-at-arms to remove said member or members without the bar of the House, and all privileges of membership shall be refused the person or persons so offending until the contempt be duly purged.

RULE 44. Whenever any person shall be brought before the bar of the House for adjudged breach of its privileges, no debate shall be in order; but the Speaker shall proceed to execute the judgment of the House without delay or debate.

RULE 45. When the House shall be equally divided on any question, including the Speaker's vote, the question shall be deemed to be lost.

RULE 46. If any question contains several distinct propositions, it shall be divided by the Chair at the request of any member, but a motion to strike out and insert shall be indivisible.

RULE 47. In all cases where a bill, order, motion or resolution shall be entered on the journal, the name of the member introducing or moving the same shall also be entered on the journal.

RULE 48. The yeas and nays may be taken on any question whenever so required, by any ten members (unless a division by yeas and nays be already pending), and when so taken shall be entered on the journal.

RULE 49. In all cases where unanimous consent is asked for advancing a bill out of its order, it shall be the duty of the Speaker to order a roll-call for the purpose of determining if such consent will be granted.

RULE 50. It shall be the duty of the Clerk to cause the journal of each day's proceedings of the House to be printed and laid on the table of members within two days after its approval, and, in addition to the other duties of his office, to prepare and supervise the printing of the calendars of the orders of the day, and to cause them to be placed on files before the commencement of each day's session.

RULE 51. No reporter for the Assembly, who has an appointment as reporter in the Senate, shall receive any order for stationery from the Clerk of the Assembly.

RULE 52. No standing rule or order of the House shall be changed, suspended or rescinded unless one day's notice shall have been given of the motion therefor, nor shall such change be made unless by a vote of a majority of all the members elected to the Assembly; any such rule or order, however, may be suspended by unanimous consent. But such notice shall not be necessary on the last day of the session. The notice and motion shall in all cases, state specifically the object of the suspension, and every case of suspension of a rule under such notice and motion shall be held to apply only to the object specified therein.

Such notice shall be given and such motion made under the order of business in which the matter proposed to be advanced by the suspension shall stand.

RULE 53. No persons, except members of the Legislature and the officers thereof, shall be permitted within the Clerk's desk, or the rooms set apart for the use of the Clerk during the session of the House, and no member or other person shall visit or remain by the Clerk's table while the yeas and nays are being called, except officers of the House in the discharge of their duties.

RULE 54. It shall be the duty of the stenographer of the Assembly to be present at every session of the House. He shall take stenographic notes of the debates in the House and in Committee of the Whole; and shall furnish a copy of the same written out in long-hand, to any member applying therefor, upon the payment to said stenographer of ten cents for each folio, which charge said stenographer may receive in addition to his fixed compensation. The stenographic notes of the debates shall be filed with the Clerk, and shall form a portion of the archives of the House. The Clerk of the Assembly is authorized to furnish said stenographer with proper stenographic blank-books in which to record said debates, not to exceed fifty dollars for an annual session of the Legislature.

RULE 55. All questions of order, as they shall occur, with the decisions thereon, shall be entered in the journal, and at the close of the session a statement of all such questions and decisions shall be printed at the close of and as an appendix to the journal.

RULE 56. Any member requesting to be excused from voting upon the final passage of a bill, or upon the passage of a resolution requiring the expenditure of money, may make, when his name is called, a brief statement of the reasons for making such request, not exceeding two minutes in time, and the House, without debate, shall decide if it will grant such request; but nothing in this rule contained shall abridge the right of any member to record his vote on any question previous to the announcement of the result.

RULE 57. Amendments proposed by the Senate and sent back to the House for concurrence shall be referred to the committee which reported the measure proposed to be amended, with power to report at any time.

RULE 58. On the third reading of a bill, after the reading of the title, and before the reading of the text, the bill shall be open to debate on its merits, but the previous question shall not be ordered until the expiration of one-half hour after the commencement of the debate; provided, however, that the vote may be taken at any time when the debate is closed, and provided further, that this rule shall not be construed to prevent debate during the reading of the bill.

RULE 59. It shall be the duty of the Sergeant-at-arms, at all times, not to allow any person to smoke in the Assembly Chamber. Subject to the direction of the Speaker, he shall enforce the rules of the House.

RULE 60. On or before the fifth day of April, committees shall make final report upon matters referred to them prior to that day, unless further time is granted for cause, and after that date no bill shall be introduced, except by message from the Senate.

RULE 61. No person shall be entitled to the privileges of the floor of the Assembly as a legislative reporter of a newspaper who is interested in pending or contemplated legislation, or who is employed by or receives compensation from any corporation for influencing legislation.

The conferees shall state to each other verbally, or in writing, as either shall choose, the reasons of their respective houses, and confer freely thereon. But no committee on conference shall consider or report on any matters except those directly at issue between the two houses. All such bills shall have their last reading in each house in the order in which the same shall have been ordered to a final reading in such house, unless the bill to be read be laid on the table. RULE 13. Neither house shall order the printing or purchasing of books for the use of members or for distribution, except by joint resolution, upon which the ayes and noes shall be called, and which must receive the votes of a majority of each house; and no printing shall be done by order of either house, which is not embraced in the contract for doing the public printing. Whenever either house shall order more than the usual number of any message or document, the fact shall be communicated immediately by message to the other. Whenever extra copies of any document or publication of any kind shall be ordered printed, the printer shall be authorized and required to deliver to the trustees of the State library at least five copies in addition to the number so ordered, for the use of the said library, and whenever more than five hundred copies are so ordered, the printer shall in like manner furnish five additional copies for each five hundred for the purpose of literary exchanges.

For the assembly....	140 copies.
For senate library.....	3 copies.
For assembly library.....	5 copies.

For State library.....	2 copies.

There shall also be printed and bound for the State library five copies of the Session Laws, and also of the journal of each house, and fifty-five copies of the same for the regents of the university, for the purpose of literary exchanges.

RULE 20. No bill introduced after the fifteenth day of March in either house shall have its final reading in either house until all bills previously introduced in either, and sent from one house to the other house for concurrence and ready for third reading, shall be disposed of, unless by unanimous consent, except the supply bill and the annual appropriation bill; and the clerk of each house shall note on such engrossed bill the day on which it was introduced, and the day on which it was received from the other house, and shall announce such facts when the same is proposed to be read a third time.

RULE 21. When a bill originated in the senate or assembly shall have been lost in either house, neither the same nor any other bill on the same subject, and containing similar provisions, shall be subsequently introduced into the senate or assembly during the same session, unless by unanimous consent.

RULE 22. The postmaster of each house shall weigh and stamp all documents sent by mail or express, and enter in a book to be kept by him for that purpose, the amount of postage or express charge thereon, and report to the clerk of the respective houses the aggregate thereof weekly ; and the assistant postmaster of each house shall enter in a book to be kept by him for that purpose an accurate account of all documents, with the postage or express charges paid thereon, transmitted from the post-office of their respective houses by mail or express, and report the aggregate thereof weekly to the respective clerks of the senate and assembly ; and the clerks of the senate and assembly shall, from time to time, furnish to the postmaster of each house respectively, the stamps requisite for carrying into execution this rule, and an account thereof shall be kept by them in books to be by them provided for that purpose ; and the books kept by the postmaster and assistant postmaster, above specified, shall be at all times open to the inspection of the clerks and members of each house respectively.

The Court of Appeals.

The Court of Appeals succeeded the Court for the Trial of Impeachments and the Correction of Errors, so far as the correction of errors is concerned. As first organized, under the Constitution of 1846, it was composed of eight Judges, four of whom were chosen by the electors of the State for a term of eight years, and four were elected from the class of Justices of the Supreme Court having the shortest time to serve. The Judges elected by the people were so classified that an election occurred every odd year. The Judges selected from the Supreme Court were taken each even year from the first, third, fifth, and seventh districts, and each odd year from the second, fourth, sixth and eighth districts, and served one year. The Judge elected by the State at large having the shortest term to serve, acted as Chief Judge. The Clerk was elected by the people for the term of three years. The reporter was appointed by the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor and Attorney-General, for three years.

The article in relation to the Judiciary, framed by the Convention of 1867-8, reorganized the Court of Appeals. This article was approved by the people at the general election held in 1869. In accordance with its provisions, the Court of Appeals is now composed of a Chief Judge and six Associate Judges, who "hold their office for the term of fourteen years, from and including the first day of January after their election," which was the year 1871. The first Judges were elected at a special election held in 1870. At the first election of Judges each elector voted for the Chief Judge and four only of the Associate Justices. Vacancies are to be filled at the next general election happening not less than three months after such vacancy occurs, and until so filled, by the Governor and Senate, or by the Governor alone, if the Senate is not in session.

Judges are prohibited, by the Constitution, from holding any other office or place of public trust; from exercising any power of appointment to public office and from practicing as attorney or counselor, or acting as referee. They are removable by concurrent resolution of both houses of the Legislature, if two-thirds of all the members elected to each branch concur therein.

The court is almost continually in session, taking recess as it may from time to time order.

The court has full power to correct or reverse the decisions of the Supreme Court. Five Judges constitute a quorum, and the concurrence of four is necessary to pronounce a judgment. If such concurrence be not had, the case must be reheard; but no more than two rehearsals can be had, and if then four Judges do not concur, the judgment of the court below is affirmed. The Legislature may authorize the judgments, decrees and decisions of any inferior local court of record established in a city, having original civil jurisdiction, to be removed for review directly into the Court of Appeals.

The salary of the Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals is $10,500, and of the Associate Judges $10,000, with an additional allowance of $2,000 each for expenses.

A Clerk is appointed by the court to hold office during its pleasure. He gives a bond to the people of the State in the penalty of $25,000, with two sufficient sureties, for the faithful performance of his duties, which bond is filed with the Comptroller. He appoints a deputy, by writing under his hand and seal, who takes the oath of office, and acts as Clerk in case of a vacancy, or when the Clerk is absent, or incapable of performing the duties. The salary of the Clerk is $5,000. He keeps his office in the New Capitol, Albany. In it are deposited the records of the former Court of Errors, Supreme Court and Court of Chancery.

The court also appoints its Reporter. He has a salary of $5,000.

Supreme Court.

The Constitution of 1846 abolished the Supreme Court as it then existed, and established a new one, having general jurisdiction in law and equity. The State is divided into eight Judicial Districts. The first district is entitled to seven Justices. The second, fifth, seventh and eighth districts to six, and the third, fourth and sixth districts to five, all of whom are elected by the voters of their respective districts. Although elected in districts, the jurisdiction of each Justice extends to every part of the State. The official term of Justices of the Supreme Court is fourteen years from the first day of January next after their election; but no person can hold such office longer than until the last day of December next after he shall be seventy years of age. They can hold no other office or public trust. If a vacancy occurs more than three months before a general election, it is filled at such election for a full term; but if it happen within three months of a general election, then it is filled by appointment of the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate if that body be in session, or if not in session, until the next general election.

The salaries of the Justices of this Court are $6,000 per annum; besides which they receive an annual allowance of $1,200 for their expenses (except in the First Judicial District).

The Justices of the Second Judicial District (except those residing in the county of Kings) receive an annual additional allowance of $2,500.

The Supreme Court possesses the powers and exercises the jurisdiction possessed and exercised by the Supreme Court, the Court of Chancery and the Circuit Court prior to the Constitution of 1846, so far as the same were consistent with that Constitution and the Judiciary act of 1847; that is to say, it has general jurisdiction in law and equity, and of all actions, civil and criminal.

Courts of first instance, or for the trial of issues of fact in civil cases, are held by one Justice, and are called Circuit Courts; while courts for trial of criminal cases are held by one Justice and two Justices of Sessions elected by the electors of the county where the court is held, and are called courts of Oyer and Terminer. The Circuit Court and the Courts of Oyer and Terminer are held on the same day and continue for the same time, and the business of either is transacted as the occasion may require, the only difference being that when criminal business is transacted the Justices of Sessions must also be on the bench. A Special Term is also held in connection with each Circuit, whereat questions of law are determined.

The eight Judicial Districts of the State are again divided into five Judicial Departments, in each of which there is organized a General Term of the Supreme Court, each of which is composed of a Presiding Justice and two Associate Justices, who are selected by the Governor from the whole number of Justices of the State. The Presiding Justice holds office as such during his judicial term, and the Associate Justices for five years, unless their judicial term sooner expires.

A General Term is held in each Judicial District of the Department at least once a year, and has jurisdiction to hear and determine appeals from the judgments and orders of the Circuit Courts, the Special Terms, the Courts of Oyer and Terminer and the County Courts within the Department. Appeals lie to the Court of Appeals from the orders and judgments of the General Term in certain cases specified by statute.

The County Clerks of the several counties are clerks of the Supreme Court in their respective counties, and the seal of such County Clerks are the seals of the court.

To entitle any person to admission as an attorney of the Supreme Court, he must be a citizen of the United States, twenty-one years of age, a resident of the Department within which he applies for admission, of good moral character, must have served a clerkship of three years in the office of a practicing attorney of the Supreme Court, and must pass a satisfactory examination by a committee appointed by the Court. An allowance of one year on the clerkship is made to graduates of colleges and universities, and of so much additional time, not exceeding one year to such graduates, or two years to non-graduates, as was actually spent in attendance upon law lectures in any law school of the State. Any person who holds a degree in law from any law school out of this State which maintains a course of instruction covering at least two academic years of not less than eight months each and gives its degrees only after public examination, shall be allowed the time spent in such law school (not exceeding two years), in lieu of an equal period of clerkship in a law office. Under this rule one year at least must be spent in a law office. At the expiration of two years after the admission of a person as an attorney, he may apply to the General Term for examination as a counselor. Attorneys are permitted to appear and try causes in the County Courts, but not in the Circuit Courts, or Courts of Oyer and Terminer, or Special Terms, or the Superior City Courts.

Members of the bar of other States may be admitted as attorneys and counselors after one year's clerkship in an office in this State; but if the applicant's term of clerkship and practice in the other State, together with the year's clerkship in this State, shall not equal five years, then the applicant can only be licensed as an attorney.

University of the State of New York.

Incorporated May 1, 1784.

Reorganized April 13, 1787.

Laws revised and consolidated June 15, 1889.

Scope and powers enlarged by University law April 27, 1892.

Object.—The object of the University as defined by law is to encourage and promote education in advance of the common elementary branches. Its field includes not only the work of academies, colleges, universities, professional and technical schools, but also educational work connected with libraries, museums, university extension courses and similar agencies.

The University is a supervisory and administrative, not a teaching institution. It is a State department and at the same time a federation of over 500 institutions of higher and secondary education.

Government.—The University is governed and all its corporate powers exercised by nineteen elective regents and by the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, Secretary of State and Superintendent of Public Instruction, who are ex officio regents. Regents are elected in the same manner as United States senators. They are unsalaried and are the only public officers in New York chosen for life.

The elective officers are a Chancellor and a Vice-Chancellor, who serve without salary, and a Secretary.

The Secretary, under official bonds for $10,000, is responsible for the safe-keeping and proper use of the University seal and of the books, records and other property in charge of the Regents, and for the proper administration and discipline of its various offices and departments.

Powers and duties.—Besides many other important powers and duties the Regents have power to incorporate, and to alter or revoke the charters of universities, colleges, academies, libraries, museums, or other educational institutions; to distribute to them funds granted by the State for their use; to inspect their workings and require annual reports under oath of their presiding officers; to establish examinations as to attainments in learning and confer on successful candidates suitable certificates, diplomas and degrees, and to confer honorary degrees.

They apportion annually an academic fund of $106,000, part for buying books and apparatus for academies and high schools raising an equal amount for the same purpose, and the remainder on the basis of attendance and on the results of instruction as shown in the satisfactory completion of prescribed courses for which the Regents' examinations afford the official test. They also expend $25,000 for the benefit of free public libraries, apportioning not to exceed $200 yearly to communities raising equal amounts, and lending small libraries for periods of six months where such assistance is needed to supplement local free libraries or to stimulate interest in establishing them.

The law allows no option among incorporated institutions as to their membership in the University, but says: "The institutions of the University shall include all institutions of higher education which are now or may hereafter be incorporated in this State, and such other libraries, museums, or other institutions for higher education as may, in conformity with the ordinances of the Regents, after official inspection, be admitted to or incorporated by the University."

Regents meetings.—The annual meeting of the Regents is on the second Wednesday in December, and during the year special meetings are held whenever business requires.

Convocation.—The University Convocation of the Regents and the officers of institutions in the University, for consideration of subjects of mutual interest, has been held annually since 1863 in the Senate chamber in Albany on the first Wednesday, Thursday and Friday after July fourth.

Its reputation as the most important higher educational meeting of the country has in the past few years drawn to it many eminent educators not residents of New York, who are most cordially welcomed and share fully in all discussions. It elects each year a council of five to represent it in intervals between meetings. Its proceedings issued annually are of great value in all educational libraries.

The manifold activities of the University are partly indicated by the summaries of the five administrative departments into which its work is divided.

ADMINISTRATIVE DEPARTMENTS.

1. Regents' office (Executive).—Including incorporation, supervision, inspection, reports, legislation, finances and all other work not assigned to another department.

2. Examination.—Including preliminary, law student, medical student, academic, higher, law, medical, library, extension and any other examinations conducted by the Regents, and also credentials or degrees conferred on examination.

3. Extension.—Including summer, vacation, evening, and correspondence schools and other forms of extension teaching, lecture courses, study clubs, reading circles and other agencies for the promotion and wider extension of opportunities and facilities for education to those unable to attend the usual teaching institutions. The most important part of the movement is provision of the best reading for all citizens through the public libraries department and by means of traveling, home, and capitol libraries and annotated lists. This work is for convenience connected with the State Library, just as the extension examinations are conducted by the examination department. Extension work properly includes all efforts by the University for extending educational opportunities to those outside the teaching institutions.

4. State Library.—Including State law, medical and education libraries, public libraries and duplicate departments, library school, traveling, extension, home and capitol libraries, reading courses, annotated lists and other bibliographic publications, lending books to students, and all other library interests intrusted to the Regents.

5. State Museum.—Including all scientific specimens and collections, works of art, objects of historic interest and similar property appropriate to a general museum, if owned by the State and not placed in other custody by a specific law, also the research department carried on by the State Geologist and Paleontologist, Botanist and Entomologist, with all other scientific interests of the University.

Fuller information regarding the University or any of its departments is given in special hand-books, to be had on application at the Regents' office.

Examination Department.

This was made a separate department in 1889.

Academic examinations.—Regents' examinations were suggested in 1828. In 1864 the method of conducting examinations in preliminary studies was prescribed, and in June, 1865, under the new rules examinations were held in arithmetic, geography, grammar, reading, writing and spelling. Since 1870 all papers of pupils claimed by principals to have passed have been re-examined at the Regents' office. In June, 1878, examinations in 20 advanced academic studies were established on the same general plan. Meeting a steadily growing demand this number was increased in 1879 to 35, in 1881 to 36, in 1883 to 39, in 1885 to 41, in 1889 to 42, in 1890 to 58, and in 1892 to 68.

In 1890 the entire system was carefully revised, new and important safe-guards were adopted, record and question board rooms were built and equipped, and the staff of examiners was materially strengthened. The New York examinations system has won recognition as not only the most extensive but also as the most thoroughly organized and effective in improving educational work.

Purpose.—The original purpose of the examinations was to determine what pupils had attained the rank of academic students, the number of such students in a school determining its share of the academic fund. The effect of these tests was constantly to improve methods and to raise the poorer schools toward the standards of the best. The examinations are, therefore, conducted as the best lever for securing better work from teachers and more systematic and continuous study from students, and as the best means of detecting and eliminating from the schools inefficient teachers or methods.

The preacademic examinations set the standard for graduation from grammar schools and in this way exercise a strong influence on the elementary schools of the State.

Professional standards.—In response to a general demand, the Court of Appeals, which determines admission to the bar, adopted a rule May 4, 1832, that all intending law students, unless college graduates, must hold the Regents' certificate as to preliminary general education. March 19, 1891 after nine years trial the requirements were materially raised. The recognized benefit of the preliminary law-student examinations in raising the standard led, in 1839, to a similar law for medical students.

Medical licenses.—Experience continually strengthened the new system and led to further action in raising professional standards. By Laws of 1890, chapter 500, all authority to indorse diplomas or licenses of physicians from other States and countries was taken from the sixteen medical colleges and given solely to the University.

From September 1, 1891, power to grant licenses to practice medicine in New York was also given solely to the University, which at once established a department of medical examinations and appointed from the leading physicians in the State three boards of medical examiners of seven each, representing the State, the homœopathic and the eclectic medical societies.

Law examinations.—February 12, 1891, professional examinations for the degree LL. B. were established. Charters of law schools granted since that date are without degree-conferring powers and all their graduates are examined by the University from which alone they can receive degrees.

For the professional and degree examinations a fee covering the cost is charged, so that they make no draft on the State treasury.

Higher examinations.—February 11, 1892, was granted the first charter for a college of arts and science without degree-conferring power, thus involving examinations in the usual studies of the four years course. After several years discussion on the same date was adopted the plan for higher examinations recommended by the conference of New York colleges. These will be opened in 1894 in all usual college and university studies, and others will be added as fast as demand requires.

Times and places.—Regents' examinations, held each term in the 416 academies and high schools of the University and also at various central points where there are ten or more candidates, cover 120 subjects and require over 500,000 question papers annually.

Credentials.—Pass cards are issued for the attainment of seventy-five per cent in any study, and certificates are given for every ten counts completed. Every count represents ten weeks work in one of three daily studies. By completing a prescribed three years course of study, an academic, English or classical diploma is gained.

State Library.

[A DEPARTMENT OF THE UNIVERSITY OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, INCLUDING PUBLIC LIBRARIES AND DUPLICATE DEPARTMENTS, LIBRARY SCHOOL AND ALL OTHER LIBRARY INTERESTS INTRUSTED TO THE REGENTS.]

The State Library was established by the Legislature in 1818, with the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, Chancellor and Chief Justice as trustees. The Secretary of State, Attorney-General and Comptroller, were afterward added. In 1844 the Regents of the University were made, ex-officio, sole trustees. The library was kept in the old Capitol till 1854, when a new building was erected for it. In 1883 this building was removed to make way for the eastern approaches of the New Capitol, and the library was temporarily located on its second floor under the Assembly Chamber. In 1889 it was made an integral part of the University and was moved to its permanent home, the third, fourth and fifth floors of the western front. The only public entrance is on the third floor, into the central and largest of the eleven reading-rooms which extend from State street to Washington avenue. The fourth and fifth floors are used for storage of books, for the public libraries and duplicate departments, for administrative purposes, and for special reading-rooms, to which students making special investigations may obtain access. The library contained January 1, 1894, 175,127 volumes, 50,482 in the law, and 124,645 in the general library, beside about 100,000 duplicates. It is open daily, except Sundays, from 8 A. M. to 10 P. M., but on legal holidays and Saturdays it closes at sundown, as the engineers are not on duty to supply electric light.

Public libraries department.—This is devoted solely to promoting general library interests of the State, which through it expends $25,000 a year for the benefit of free public libraries. Its object is to stimulate the formation of local libraries and on request to give needed advice and supervision in organizing or in improving the methods of existing institutions; to provide annotated lists of the best books on all subjects, and in all practicable ways to assist communities willing to do their part in providing the best reading for their citizens.

Traveling libraries.—These are in charge of the public libraries department and are lent six months at a time to local libraries needing such supplements or to communities not yet having organized permanent libraries. To cover transportation both ways, cases, a supply of catalogues, a charging outfit, and needed blanks for records and reports, a fee of five dollars is charged.

Duplicate department.—This forms a great State clearing house for duplicates, to which any library in the State may send books which it no longer requires and select from it in return an equivalent of books suited to its locality. The libraries pay transportation both ways and the State does the work in order to place the books where they will be most useful.

Library school.—The law authorizes the State Library to give to any librarian, assistant, or other person interested in any library in the State, instruction and assistance in organizing and administering libraries. Students receive from the State Library staff, in return for services rendered to the library during their two years course, careful training in cataloguing, classification and all other duties of professional librarianship. Its graduates have already filled 111 positions in New York and 135 in other States. There is a complete system of library examinations, with pass-cards, certificates and diplomas.

State Museum.

Established 1843.

In 1889, the State Museum was made an integral part of the University, and the fifth floor of the New Capitol was formally assigned for its use. Till the new quarters are completed, most of the museum remains on the four floors of Geological Hall in State street. Here are the collections in mineralogy, geology, paleontology, zoology and ethnology, and the offices of the assistant director in charge, and of the assistant zoologist.

The works of art and historic interest are in the Capitol, chiefly in the State Library. The law says: "All scientific specimens and collections, works of art, objects of historic interest and similar property appropriate to a general museum, if owned by the State and not placed in other custody by a specific law, shall constitute the State Museum." This provides for preservation and exhibition.

The law also includes in the museum the department of scientific research, which is carried on by the geologist and paleontologist and the botanist whose offices are in State Hall in Eagle street, and by the entomologist whose office is in the north-east section of the fourth floor of the Capitol. While their work is distinct from that of the museum proper, each officer reports annually to the Regents the results of his investigation for the year, and the reports are printed with that of the museum. Besides these annual reports, there are published memoirs and bulletins and the natural history of the State, begun in 1832. On this great work, carried on for over half a century by the present State Geologist, the State has spent upwards of $1,400,000. The eighth volume of the Paleontology is now being printed, as is also one of the best geologic maps yet issued by any State.

The museum is constantly increased by gifts and by annual grants from the Legislature. It is open to the public from 9 A. M. to 5 P. M. daily, except Sundays, including vacations, Saturday afternoons and all other holidays.

RULES ADOPTED BY THE REGENTS.

[Any suggestions for making the library more useful are invited, and any reader having cause for complaint will greatly oblige the director by reporting the facts personally or by note.]

1. These rules shall be publicly posted in the library and a copy given to every borrower, and no violation of them will be excused on the plea of ignorance.

2. No suspension of a rule shall be made except by the library committee on a written statement of satisfactory reasons.

3. All departments of the State Library shall be kept open from 9 A. M. to 5 P. M. daily, except on Sundays and legal holidays. On holidays when its business departments are closed, the reading room shall be open, and books shall be supplied to readers during the usual hours of opening.

4. Members of the Legislature, judges of the Court of Appeals, justices of the Supreme Court, heads of the several State departments, their deputies and clerks officially resident in Albany, donors to the library to the amount of $100, all institutions of the university, such other libraries as may be approved by the library committee, and, by written permission of a regent, others having special claim on its facilities, may borrow books, subject to recall if specially needed. Books shall be lent only to registered borrowers, and delivered only on personal application or on a written order, by which full responsibility for books so delivered is assumed. No book shall be lent by a borrower.

5. The reading rooms and reference library shall be free to all persons conforming to the rules; but no reader shall be entitled to retain for use in the library any book required for immediate official use by any State officer, court, department or committee in the Capitol.

6. Readers shall not, without special permission from a librarian, accumulate on their desks law or other reference books, but all volumes not in actual use shall be promptly returned to the shelves.

7. No one but officers of the library shall have access to its private rooms, unless with an attendant or a written permit from a librarian

8. No one shall keep from the library, without special permission of the director, more than three volumes at a time, nor any volume longer than two weeks without renewal. A book renewed after being out one week may be kept only two weeks from the date of such renewal. Books may be renewed any time during the second week of loan, either in person or by note addressed "State library loan desk, Albany," but the sender must take all risks of the mail.

9. No borrower shall keep a book more than two days after notice from the library that it is wanted. Thus notice sent May 7 allows May 8 and 9 in which to return the book. If a note requests renewal of a book "reserved" under rule 10, notice of recall will be sent and two days will be allowed for its return.

10. No book shall be renewed if the word "reserve" is on its register card. A book which has been lent will be reserved for the applicant for two days only after its return, if he leave, on the blank provided at the loan desk, his address and the title of the book. This "reserve" will be dated and sent him immediately on the return of the book.

11. Books marked on the book plate and in the catalogues "REF" are for reference only and will not be lent. Those marked "ref" will be lent and those marked "per" can be consulted, only on written permit from the librarian in charge.

12. No book shall be removed from the room in which it belongs without permission of the librarian in charge.

13. Books issued on call-slips are for use in the reading rooms only. To be taken away from the library they must be charged at the loan desk, and any person taking from the library a book without having it so charged will be fined fifty cents for each offense.

14. Any book unreturned after one week's notice, may be sent for at the expense of the borrower.

15. Any book unreturned after one month's notice, may be considered lost, in which case the borrower shall pay its value.

16. No reproduction by photography, tracing, etc., shall be made without permission from a librarian.

17. Notes, corrections of the press, or marks of any kind on books belonging to the library, are unconditionally forbidden. Any person violating this rule or otherwise injuring a book shall pay a fine satisfactory to the library committee or take the book and pay all costs of replacing it. The borrower is responsible for all injuries, however caused, to any book while charged to him, and if he finds a book mutilated or defaced should report the fact without delay at the loan desk. Books are assumed to be in proper condition when issued, and the borrower will be held responsible if a book be found mutilated or injured on its return.

18. Silence and decorum must be strictly observed in the reading rooms. The use of tobacco, all conversation, except necessary questions, begging, circulating petitions, offering articles for sale, or any act that may annoy readers, is forbidden. Dogs must be left outside.

19. For willful violation of any library rule the director may suspend the offender from all use of the library till the case is considered by the committee.

20. No person, except the director, superintendent of the building, and designated members of the library staff shall have a key to the library, and no key shall be lent for any purpose whatever.

Staff of the Commander-in-Chief.

The staff of the Commander-in-Chief consists of one Adjutant-General of the grade of Major-General, who shall be Chief of Staff, one Inspector-General, one Commissary-General, who shall be Chief of Ordnance; one Judge-Advocate-General, who shall be a counsellor-at-law of the Supreme Court, of at least five years' standing; one Surgeon-General, who shall be a graduate of some incorporated school of medicine and of at least five years' practice; one Chief of Engineers, who shall have been educated as an engineer; one Chief of Artillery, one Quartermaster-General; one Paymaster-General, one Commissary-General of Subsistence; one General Inspector of Rifle Practice, each of the grade of Brigadier-General; six Aides-de-Camp, each of the grade of Colonel, and one Military Secretary of the grade of Colonel.

These officers are appointed directly by the Governor (except the Chief of Ordnance), and their commissions expire with the term for which the Governor appointing them is elected. The Chief of Ordnance is confirmed by the Senate on nomination of the Governor, his term of office being two years.

The Adjutant-General, Inspector-General, Chief of Ordnance and General Inspector of Rifle Practice are constantly on duty, as well as their chief assistants, who rank as Colonel.

Everything relating to the effective state of the troops to formation, instruction and discipline, falls within the department over which the Adjutant-General presides. He is the regular channel of communication with the Commander-in-Chief, and all orders, special instructions and general regulations issued by the Commander-in-Chief, are prepared and published by the Adjutant-General.

By an act passed April 16, 1827, the Adjutant-General was directed to prepare a seal to be used on military commissions, certificates, or other official documents, and all copies of records or papers in his office, duly certified under the said seal, are made evidence in all cases, the same as if the originals are produced.

The Inspector-General is charged with the constant inspection of all branches of the military service.

The Chief of Ordnance has charge of the purchase, sale, preservation, return and issue of military property, the care of all arsenals and armories, and the issue of ammunition for rifle practice, etc.

The General Inspector of Rifle Practice has charge of the rifle practice of the National Guard throughout the State, and, under the direction of the Commander-in-Chief, prescribes the manner in which it shall be performed. He reports to general head-quarters the improvement in marksmanship, together with other matters appertaining to his duties.

The Judge-Advocate-General is the legal adviser of the several staff departments upon all legal questions which arise therein, and much of his time is employed in the review of court-martial proceedings, of appeals, and disputed points of military law and regulations.

In case of war, insurrection, rebellion, or imminent danger thereof, when the military forces or volunteers of the State of New York, or any part thereof, shall be in the actual service of the State, or in the service of the United States, the Staff of the Commander-in-Chief may be paid such reasonable and just compensation, not exceeding the full pay and allowances of officers of the same rank in the army of the United States, as the Commander-in-Chief may deem proper; together with their necessary expenses.
